A Warm Welcome – to Renee Tsinnie of St. Michael Indian School in Arizona who will be spending this weekend with us visiting our parishioners in our 4 churches.

We give their school $1000 a month from our four churches and have done this for several years. They are doing a feature story on our parish for their monthly newsletter. She would like to interview several parishioners and take some photographs of our churches.

Thank You – to everyone who attended our Veteran's Breakfast last Sunday. It was an honor for our high school youth and Catholic Daughters to be able to show our gratitude to these men & woman who have served and are currently serving in our armed forces.

Missing – from the parish kitchen two electric skillet. If you know of their whereabouts, please let Regina know or return them to their proper place.

Jasper Share Needs Volunteers – gave me food." He said those who did this would enter into paradise.

Knights of Columbus and Catholic Daughters -
