Welcome – Next weekend we welcome Father Joseph Sigur to our parish. Father prefers to be called "Father Joseph" and he has been named by Bishop Curtis Guillory as Parochial Vicar of our 5 churches. Because of the Coronavirus and the impossibility of social distancing, we are not able to have a reception and covered dish luncheon to welcome Father Joseph. He will be a tremendous asset to our parish family as he speaks Spanish fluently.

St. Michael's Indian School – The latest edition of The Cardinal News from the school where we send $1000.00 a month to help with the education of these Native American children featured our parish with photos and a story. Copies of this article can be found in the foyer of each church.
