Happy Sunday, the Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord – Today we celebrate an important part of our faith, the day Jesus – our Risen Lord, both God and man, the Incarnate Savior. But it is far more than a movement in history. It is truly the culmination of the paschal mystery of our faith. It completes what Christ set out to do by his birth, passion, death, resurrection AND HIS ASCENSION. Far more than just forty days after the resurrection, it marks the definitive entrance of Jesus' humanity into God's heavenly domain, whence he will come again. Jesus Christ, the head of the Church, precedes us into the Father's glorious kingdom so that we, the members of his Body, may live in hope of one day being with him forever. Jesus Christ, having entered the sanctuary of heaven once and for all, intercedes constantly for us as the mediator who assures us of the permanent outpouring of the Holy Spirit.
