ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME THE MASTER STORYTELLER

In today's Gospel, Jesus is presented to us as the master storyteller. He loved to use parables as a tool for comparing one thing to something else. In most of his parables, Jesus revealed who God is by comparing God's essence or actions with something familiar to his listeners. In the parable of the mustard seed, Jesus proclaims a marvelous and irrefutable truth. His small band of disciples, as insignificant as they may have felt, would one day produce a mighty kingdom whose growth was initiated by God. The seeds of this kingdom were planted by God and it is God who will harvest the fruit brought forth from those seeds. The extent of the growth of God's kingdom cannot be predicted. We must trust the work of the Master's hand as we, the mustard plant, grow and grow.

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

As you heard announced at Masses this weekend, the Landis-Arnold family, who are our parishioners, were involved in a serious car accident last Saturday. Alexander, Leo, and Loucie, the three children of that family, were all baptized at the Easter Vigil a few months ago. All three of them were in the car with their father, Lee, when the accident happened. Lee, Alexander, and Leo all sustained injuries that will require significant recovery time. When I spoke to their mother, Baty, earlier this week, she said that this would be "a summer of recovery."

I'm hoping that all of us, as a parish family, can lift them up in our prayers and show our support for them. A group from the kids' school has organized a schedule by which volunteers can sign up to provide meals for the family throughout the summer. For parishioners who are interested in providing a meal for the Landis-Arnold family, please visit: <https://takethemeal.com/BZRX4976>. (If a code is requested, use 211.)

At that website you can also find a link to the family's Caring Bridge webpage, which gives updates on how everyone is doing. I will keep you posted with any other ways that we can offer support as a parish family. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

To Jesus through Mary,

Fr. Jonathan
