TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

If we want to know what Jesus' parable is about in today's Gospel, it seems that we do not need to work too hard because Saint Luke tells us right at the beginning: "Jesus told his disciples a parable about their need to pray always and not to lose heart." This parable has often been used to bring comfort to us about our prayer life. But could there be a more challenging message for those who take stewardship seriously? Widows were the poorest and most vulnerable of people in Jesus' time. Oppressive legal and economic structures were the norm. Jesus embraced with great compassion the poor and the marginalized. Could it be that we are also encouraged to pray persistently for the poor, the weak and the vulnerable as we hear their cry for justice? And that we must not lose heart that we can effect change in their lives?

BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

On the back counters of the church and on the altar rails near the side doors you will find the "Book of Remembrance" sheets where you may inscribe the names of your departed loved ones.

The Book of Remembrance will be placed on the altar of the Blessed Virgin Mary during the month of November.

The month of November is the traditional month in our Church Year to remember the faithful departed, and the Book of Remembrance is a reminder to us of the importance of our prayers for them. Placing the book at Mary's altar also invokes her powerful intercession with her Son, the Lord and Giver of Life.

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.

Amen.

Prayer to

"Our Father in heaven, through the powerful intercession of Our Lady of Prompt Succor, spare us from all harm during this hurricane season and protect us and our homes from all disasters of nature. Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us.

World Mission Sunday

Today, World Mission Sunday, in this Extraordinary Missionary Month, we are called to personal encounter with Jesus Christ alive in the Church, and to offer, through this Eucharistic celebration, our prayers and our generous financial support, through the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, to continue the mission of Jesus.

Today we are "sent" out to witness to Mission in the world through our prayers and personal sacrifices for our brothers and sisters around the world.

As little as $25 helps support a catechist for a month in remote Latin America.

$75 provides for the work of religious Sisters caring for orphaned children in Africa. $100 assists poor children in boarding schools in Asia. As always, your prayers are your most treasured gift to the Missions. Your prayers and financial help, offered today, World Mission Sunday, support mission priests, religious Sisters and Brothers, and lay catechists who are Christ's witnesses to a world so in need of His healing, love, and peace.
