What a joy to remember that Mary is our Mother!

Since she loves us and knows our weakness, what have we to fear?

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER VOCATION

Roman Catholics in the United States spend a good deal of time speaking of "vocation" and the manner in which each of us discerns our vocation for life. In today's apostolic letter, however, Peter gives us the "cornerstone" of our vocation, the description of what each of us is called to first and foremost by our baptism. He describes our vocation as "a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people of [God's] own, so that you may announce the praises" of Christ, who called us out of darkness into light (1 Peter 2:9). All of us, no matter what path our life's vocation may take us down, have been chosen by God, made holy, and anointed as priests in the high priesthood of Christ through baptism. All of this, so that we may announce the praises of Christ. Vocation is given for proclamation at home, in the workplace—wherever life takes us—in service, in word, and in sacrament.

Holy Virgin of Guadalupe,

Queen of the Angels and Mother of the Americas.
We fly to you today as your beloved children.
We ask you to intercede for us with your Son,
as you did at the wedding in Cana.

Pray for us, loving Mother,
and gain for our nation and world,
and for all our families and loved ones,
the protection of your holy angels,
that we may be spared the worst of this illness.

For those already afflicted,
we ask you to obtain the grace of healing and deliverance.

Hear the cries of those who are vulnerable and fearful,
wipe away their tears and help them to trust.

In this time of trial and testing, teach all of us in the Church to love one another and to be patient and kind.

Help us to bring the peace of Jesus to our land and to our hearts.

We come to you with confidence,
knowing that you truly are our compassionate mother,
health of the sick and cause of our joy.

Shelter us under the mantle of your protection,
keep us in the embrace of your arms,
help us always to know the love of your Son, Jesus.
Amen.

(United States Conference of Catholic Bishops)

St. Michael the Archangel,

defend us in battle,

be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.

Amen.

Please keep your face covered while in church (except when receiving Holy Communion during Mass).

Please make use of hand sanitizer.

Please share a pew only with others who live in your household.

Please maintain good social distancing of six feet from others at all times (including while in procession to receive Holy Communion).

When attending Mass, please receive Holy Communion in your hand, not on your tongue. When receiving in your hand, be sure that your hand is flat and not moving.

Before leaving church, please use the provided cleaning supplies to sanitize the area that you occupied.

While these requests may seem burdensome, we are putting them in place for the sake of the health and welfare of all who visit the church. Therefore, observing these practices is an act of charity.

PARISH LITURGY SCHEDULE

Effective May 6, 2020

At this time, no more than 10 people will be permitted to attend each Mass. (The week will begin on Friday and end the following Thursday.) Those who wish to attend a Mass must sign up for a particular Mass by visiting the parish website (<https://olr-nola.org/public-masses>) or by calling the parish office: (504-488-2659).

For all who are healthy enough to go out in public, I encourage you to sign up for a Mass. Even if you have not been able to secure a place for a weekend Mass, Jesus is still present in the Eucharist on a weekday!

To prevent having any Masses that are not filled with the limit of 10, the limit of one Mass per week will not apply if there is still an empty slot for Mass 3 hours before that Mass begins. In other words, parishioners can sign up to attend another Mass in a week, if that Mass is not full 3 hours before it is scheduled to start.

There will be a parishioner present at each Mass to make sure that the 10-person rule is observed.

Please keep in mind that the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays is still dispensed - no one is required to attend Sunday Mass. Also, we still strongly encourage anyone who is particularly vulnerable to Coronavirus to avoid coming to church.

When you arrive for Mass, the only door to church that will be open will be the one at the wheelchair ramp. There will be a volunteer present to make sure that only those who have signed up for Mass will enter the church.
