There are times when the sky seems to have fallen. At such times we must take courage because God cares. God says, "I will take you, I will gather you, I will bring you, I will give you." With such guarantees what have we to worry about?

On the darkest day of his suffering, the advice Job got from his friends was grim. "Curse God and die" he was told. But Job, to his everlasting credit remained faithful to God. His response was, "Yea though He slay me yet will I love and serve Him." That must be our noble response to any grave suffering we may have to endure.

My dear friends, it is a law of life – we like to be near to those we love and far from those we dislike. That is the underlying fact of the Eucharist. The Eucharist is God's effort to be close to each one of us whom He dearly loves.

Let me offer you some comforting words from the Book of Joshua (1:9):

Be strong and courageous
Do not be afraid and do not give up hope
Because the Lord God goes with us wherever we go.

Do you love the Church? If you don't you should. All that your parents did for your physical welfare, the Church does for your spiritual welfare. Not for nothing do we speak of the Church as "Holy Mother the Church."

The Church by its teaching is like a compass for you and me. A compass indicates the road one must travel and what alleyways one must avoid. Thank God for the Church.

The beauty and goodness of God – listen:

Listen – Go through His open gates with great thanksgiving, enter His court with praise.

Give thanks to Him and bless His name. For the Lord is always good. He is always loving and kind. And His faithfulness goes on and on to each succeeding generation.

No matter how desperate a situation you find yourself in you must never imagine that God is absent, that He is looking the other way or that He does not care. There is a beautiful reminder in Scripture that this can never be.

"Zion said the Lord has forsaken me. The Lord has forgotten me. Can a woman forget her suckling child? That she should have no compassion for the son of her womb? Even these may forget. Yet I will not forget you. Behold I have engraved you on the palm of my hand."

At the beginning of a new day and a new week, let me confront you with a very powerful fact. In the words of Scripture addressed to the Israelites:

“The Lord did not set His love upon you because you were more in number than any other people for you were the fewest of all people but the Lord chose you because He loved you.”

My dear friends, let that thought uplift you throughout the thick and thin of the day. The Lord chose you because He loved you.

Give thanks to God for His goodness to you. He is always kind and loving. His faithfulness is never ending. It goes on and on to each succeeding generation.

How we wish we lived in Jesus' time on earth. We would wait on Him hand and foot. But we don't have to have lived in Jesus' time in order to love and honor Him. You can do just that by helping someone in need. What you did for the least of my brethren you did for Me.
