FROM OUR PASTOR, FR. ANTONY

My Dearest Parishioners in Jesus Christ,

The devil once briefed his minions: "What will you tell men?" he asked the first. "I shall tell them that there is no God." "No use, they won't believe you," the devil replies.

"What will you tell men?" he asked the second. "I shall tell them there is a God but He doesn't love them". "They won't believe that either", the devil replies.

"What will you tell men"? he asked the third. "I will tell them that there is a God who loves them but that it needn't make any difference." "Fine", says the devil. "Off you go!"

God may be defined as love and one may prove that God loves. But if anyone can show that God and His love do not really matter, then all our fine talk about God becomes meaningless. The devil knows it well and explains it to the maximum. In the world of today, many just do not believe in God because they do not see any need for God. In their lives, God does not matter.

We celebrated recently Holy Week and Easter. These have a message and the message is that God really cares and that it does make a difference. Today's second reading shows that Christ did matter in the lives of numberless men and women from every nation and tribe.

INFORMATION ON THE SACRAMENTS

BAPTISMS
Please call the office to register and make an appointment with our Pastoral Minister - Sue Hofgartner

ANOINTING OF THE SICK
This is primarily a sacrament of physical healing and spiritual strengthening. The sacrament is administered to those facing serious surgery or illness. If you desire this sacrament please call Fr. Antony. We offer a communal Anointing Service in the Spring and Fall.

MARRIAGE
Couples desiring to marry please call the office and contact Fr. Antony. Arrangements must be made at least nine months prior to the wedding.

It mattered as it brought them peace and security. It mattered because they found forgiveness for their sins. It mattered because God has wiped away every tear from their eyes. All that God does and is does matter. All that God is and does is to care for His creation. This caring is beautifully expressed in the image of God as the Good Shepherd. God cares for us even to the point of dying for us. No greater love can a man have for his friends than to lay down his life for them. "I am the Good Shepherd, who is willing to die for His sheep", says Jesus. And He did lay down His life for us. This is the Good News which has to be boldly proclaimed. The devil and his agents will try to oppose, to silence the messengers of the Good News. But no one can stop God or the spread of His Word.

Today Jesus tells us that He is the Good Shepherd who has come down to tend His flock. A shepherd is expected to lead his sheep to green pastures and cool streams where there is refreshment, rest and rock-like security. He knows how to protect his sheep from the thieves and wolves. He is even prepared to give up his life to safeguard his flock. But his efforts will be in vain if the sheep do not listen to his voice.

Being aware of the unending love Jesus the Good Shepherd has shown for us His sheep, let us pledge to hear His words of love and follow His path.

On a different note, I would like to remind you about the special devotion to Mary during this month of May. We have been getting a good attendance at the devotion and I am inviting you my Sisters and Brothers to kindly join us and be a witness to your own faith. The Rosary at the Grotto begins at 6:30 p.m.

With kindest regards,
Fr. Antony Kolenchery

FROM DEACON DON

THE PUDDLE

You never know when an opportunity will present itself for you to be a gift or an inspiration to someone...Come with me to a third grade classroom . . . There is a nine year-old kid sitting at his desk and all of a sudden, there is a puddle between his feet and the front of his pants are wet. He thinks his heart is going to stop because he cannot possibly imagine how this has happened. It's never happened before, and he knows that when the boys find out he will never hear the end of it. When the girls find out, they'll never speak to him again as long as he lives.

The boy believes his heart is going to stop; he puts his head down and prays this prayer, "Dear God, this is an emergency! I need help now! Five minutes from now I'm dead meat." He looks up from his prayer and here comes the teacher with a look in her eyes that says he has been discovered. As the teacher is walking toward him, a classmate named Susie is carrying a goldfish bowl that is filled with water. Susie trips in front of the teacher and inexplicably dumps the bowl of water in the boy's lap. The boy pretends to be angry, but all the while is saying to himself, "Thank you, Lord! Thank you, Lord!"

Now, all of a sudden, instead of being the object of ridicule, the boy is the object of sympathy. The teacher rushes him downstairs and gives him gym shorts to put on while his pants dry out. All the other children are on their hands and knees cleaning up around his desk. The sympathy is wonderful. But, as life would have it, the ridicule that should have been his has been transferred to someone else—Susie. She tries to help, but they tell her to get out. "You've done enough, you klutz!"

Finally, at the end of the day, as they are waiting for the bus, the boy walks over to Susie and whispers, "You did that on purpose, didn't you?" Susie whispers back, "I wet my pants once too." May God help us see the opportunities that are always around us to do good. Remember . . . Just going to Church doesn't make you a Christian any more than standing in your garage makes you a car.

ASSUMPTION UNIVERSITY LEARN FOR LIFE SERIES

Dr. John Cappucci will offer a course on "The Catholic Church and the International Order" on Tuesdays throughout May from 7:30pm - 9pm in the Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church Hall, Windsor. Cost is $45 plus HST and registration is available at www.assumptionu.ca/learnforlife.

The Catholic Church stands as the world's largest religious institution, but it is also a formidable political entity that exerts considerable influence on the international stage. This course will begin by examining the Church's hierarchical structure, curial departments, and diplomatic corps and relations. The course will then move to discuss the Church's role in political affairs, including rallying against oppressive regimes, condemning conflicts, brokering peace deals, and campaigning for human rights. Finally, the course will explore the Church's role in striving for better international order free from poverty, climate change, and nuclear proliferation.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

"The Lord's call is not an intrusion of God in our freedom; it is not a "cage" or a burden to be borne. On the contrary, it is the loving initiative whereby God encounters us and invites us to be part of a great undertaking. He opens before our eyes the horizon of a greater sea and an abundant catch."

Message from Pope Francis for today's day of prayer. Take a moment to see the many vocation initiatives in our own Diocese by visiting VocationsLondon on Facebook, Twitter or at www.dol.ca/vocations
