

St. Mary's of the Lake

June 20, 2021

Twelfth Sunday
in Ordinary Time

“Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?” He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, “Quiet! Be still!” The wind ceased and there was great calm. They were filled with great awe and said to one another, “Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?” - Mk 4:38c-39, 41

St. Mary's of the Lake Parish Trustee Election

♦ Jim Pleva has graciously served as a parish trustee for 3 consecutive 2-year terms. According to Diocesan Guidelines: At the end of this June, Jim will step aside for at least one year. Please join me in THANKING JIM for his generous and faith-filled service to the Parish.

♦ Dennis Geurtsen has been asked and is graciously willing to have his name on the ballot for the trustee election, which will take place this weekend. Thank you greatly, Dennis, for your gracious acceptance as a candidate for the position to succeed Jim. God Bless!

Please Vote!

A Summer Blessing

Walk along beside me, Jesus, as I begin the months of summer. As I work, play, enjoy family time and friendships, may I hear Your voice within me, guiding me toward all that is right and good. Give me faith in Your presence, knowing that You walk beside me in everything I do. Gracious and loving Jesus, thank You for the gift of Summer. May the warmth of its sun and the beauty of its light remind me daily of Your love for me.

Dear Parishioners and Friends of St. Mary's of the Lake:

[Below is part 1 of Pope Francis' Message at the General Audience June 2, 2021 on Catechesis on Prayer 36 – Jesus Model and Soul of All Prayers]

◆ The Gospels show us how prayer was fundamental in the relationship between Jesus and his disciples. This can already be seen in the choice of those who would later become the Apostles. Luke places their election in a precise context of prayer, and he says: 'In these days he went out to the mountain to pray; and all night he continued in prayer to God. And when it was day, he called his disciples, and chose from them twelve, whom he named apostles' (6:12-13). Jesus chooses them after a night of prayer. It seems that there is no criterion in this choice other than prayer, the dialogue of Jesus with the Father. Judging from how those men were to behave, it would seem that the choice was not the best, as they all fled, they left him alone before the Passion; but it is precisely this, especially the presence of Judas, the future betrayer, that demonstrates that those names were inscribed in God's plan.

◆ Prayer on behalf of his friends continually resurfaces in the life of Jesus. The Apostles sometimes become a cause of concern for him, but as he had received them from the Father, after prayer, Jesus carries them in his heart, even in their errors, even when they fall. In all this we discover how Jesus was both teacher and friend, always willing to wait patiently for the disciple's conversion. The highest point of this patient waiting is the 'web' of love that Jesus weaves around Peter. At the Last Supper He says to him: 'Simon, Simon, behold, Satan demanded to have you, that he might sift you like wheat, but I have prayed for you that your faith may not fail; and when you have turned again, strengthen your brethren' (Lk 22:31-32). It is impressive to know that at that moment, during the time of weakness, Jesus' love does not cease. 'But father, if I am in mortal sin, does Jesus love me?' — "Yes" — 'And does Jesus continue to love me?' — "Yes" — 'But if I have done worse things, and committed many sins ... does Jesus continue to love me?' — "Yes". Jesus' love and prayer for each one of us does not cease, it does not cease, but rather becomes more intense, and we are at the center of his prayer! We must always keep this in mind: Jesus prays for me, he is praying now before the Father and makes him see the wounds he carried with him, to show the Father the price of our salvation, it is the love that he holds for us. But in this moment, let each one of us, let us think: in this moment, is Jesus praying for me? Yes. This is a great certainty that we must have. [To Be Continued]

Parish Meetings ~ Everyone Welcome
