Next Week's Liturgical Readings

July 12, 2020 – FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

- 1) Isaiah 55:10-11
- 2) Romans 8:18-23
- 3) Matthew 13:1-23 or 13:1-9

FOCUS: The word of God is fruitful, powerful, and meant to bring us to full union with God in heaven.

The first reading and Gospel show the potency of the work of God. In fertile hearts, the Word can multiply exponentially, and it can bring about God's will in our lives. The Word comes from God to us, in order that we might be brought to God. Can there be any greater gift?

LITURGY OF THE WORD

Isaiah describes the word of God as fruitful, not returning to the Lord until his will is accomplished. Paul writes to the Romans, addressing human suffering and looking beyond it to the promise of heaven. In the Gospel, Jesus tells the parable of the sower and explains its meaning.

PARISH OFFICE REORGANIZATION

1. The parish office continues to remain open by appointment only. Please phone and leave a message for the person you want to reach. Your call will be promptly returned and, if necessary, an in-person appointment will be made. This system will continue until further notice.

2. Office hours have changed: open from 8:30 am – 12 noon Tuesday to Friday: closed on Mondays.

3. There is also a personnel change based on a recent agreement with the Diocese:

- Renata Kochanowska, secretary/bookkeeper of St. Joseph, becomes secretary at both St. Joseph and St. Anne, dividing her time equally at both locations.

- Nellie Mendes, secretary/bookkeeper at St. Anne, becomes business manager at both St. Anne and St. Joseph, dividing her time equally at both locations.

We welcome Renata to St. Anne and we thank her and Nellie for their generosity and availability in accepting this change for the good of both parishes. The sharing of personnel and the "division of responsibility" will provide greater efficiency and significant savings for both parishes in this "twinning relationship". We trust this solution will help all of us move forward with closer collaboration.
