Next Week's Liturgical Readings

September 6, 2020 – 23RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

- 1) Ezekiel 33:7-9
- 2) Romans 13:8-10
- 3) Matthew 18:15-20

FOCUS: Love your neighbor as yourself.

Our readings today work together to teach us about the real obligations of the law, which include gently correcting one another so that our communities may be in harmony. Paul explains how we must do this, and do all things, with love. And Jesus promises to remain with us always.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

In the first reading, the Lord tells Ezekiel that he will be held responsible for the death of the wicked one if he does not speak out to dissuade [him] from his way. In the Letter to the Romans, Paul writes that the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. In the Gospel, Jesus gives instructions for correcting another, gives authority to bind and loose, and promises where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

CONFESSIONS

Confessions are now permitted by appointment only. Please contact the priest directly through the parish office.

A link to the entire Novena is on our website, and each day we will post the daily prayers on social media. On these 9 days of prayer we will join together: parishes and schools, staff and students, parents and grandparents, parishioners and community members. We will pray for the protection of all, for the peace of all, and for wisdom and courage for us all.
