This Week's Liturgical Readings

March 28, 2021 – Passion Sunday

- 1) Isaiah 50:4-7
- 2) Philippians 2:6-11
- 3) Mark 14:1-15:47 or 15:1-39

FOCUS: Do the choices we make reflect our own will or the will of God?

Estimates say that human beings make as many as 35,000 choices each day. Through his sin of pride, the first man, Adam, attempted equality with God. Through humility and docility, Jesus put aside pride and accepted death on a cross for the salvation of mankind. In each moment, we have a choice – will we follow the example of Adam or the example of Jesus?

LITURGY OF THE WORD

Isaiah speaks of the well-trained tongue and open ears that God has given him, saying, The Lord God is my help, therefore I am not disgraced. In the 2nd reading, St. Paul testifies to the selflessness and humility of Jesus in obediently accepting death on the cross. At Jesus' name every knee should bend... and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord. The Gospel narrates Jesus' last hours, from his anointing with perfumed oil by a woman, through his last supper, betrayal, passion, death, and burial.

HOLY WEEK CELEBRATIONS

Because we are permitted 30% capacity for Church worship (that is a little over 100 people) and we do not reach that number on regular Sundays, you do not have to register for these celebrations. Come and celebrate with us the mysteries of our salvation, the Paschal mysteries of the Life, Death, and Resurrection of the Lord Jesus.

DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE

Did you know that Development and Peace has organized a Lenten campaign every year since 1968?

Keeping up with the tradition, this year's campaign, Share Love, Share Lent, invites you to a final week of family fun, communal reflection, global solidarity and prayer.

Don't miss our special campaign Way of the Cross!

Catch the details and contribute at devp.org/lent.

Thank you for your generous donations last weekend. This special collection will remain open until April 12.

PARENTING TIP OF THE MONTH

Past research has shown that children consistently identify a desire to spend more time with their parents and family. Time for them means direct, active engagement. The long-term benefits to family relationships are proven, children grow up healthier in mind, body and spirit. Enjoying quality time with their family's means children are more likely to turn to their family for love and support, keeping them healthy. Play with your kids, watch a movie together and discuss its message(s), pray together, be active together, cook together and/or clean together; the possibilities are endless. So remember, time with family is powerful when it is interactive, shared by all and fun!
