

Week 2 March 23-27

Take a breath. We are still in the beginning stages of this new journey. We will need to remain patient and compliant with each other as we work out all of the issues that come with our situation. Through this, I will be checking my email during the hours of 9-11AM and 1-3PM. Please let me know of any issues you come across in completing your assignments. My email address is nnatell@stpeterreserve.org

You should all have your books at home with you to aid your learning. That being said, we will also be utilizing all of our google classroom, Pearson online, and IXL resources. Our main method of communicating and submitting work will be the Internet. Students will be expected to remain self-motivated and take charge of their own learning, even more than before. I advise that students also set up regular schoolwork hours in order to keep as much routine and regularity as possible. That being said, their ELA coursework will be assigned on a weekly basis. Students will be expected to pace themselves as they complete the learning goals for the week. I will provide guidance of the expected skills, I will check over submitted work, and I will assign assessments. You will still be required to complete an independent reading project by the end of the quarter.

Weekly assignments will be posted by Monday. Assessments will be posted by Friday. All homework assignments will be expected by Friday. The expectations for time spend working on ELA via IXL will increase to 60 minutes per week since we will not be in class. IXL assignments will count towards your computer class as well.
