A WORD FROM FR. JOHN...

Just a few short words to note a significant change in our parish. This Tuesday, June 26, Fr. Matthew will complete his three-year assignment as our parochial vicar and begin his assignment as the parochial administrator of the parish churches in Corning. While I have served with Fr. Matthew for just seven months, it is clear to me that his ministry and presence was an important and valuable part of our parish. I know for myself that my first assignment following ordination was a formative and meaningful experience, as the parishioners, along with the pastor and staff, helped me to refine my ministerial skills and grow in my priesthood. I imagine that you have done much the same for Fr. Matthew. As we say goodbye this weekend, we wish him well and trust that his experience in our parish will aid him as he undertakes a new role in pastoring a multi-church parish. May our prayers and God's blessings go with him.

As Fr. Matthew takes his leave, we ready ourselves to welcome Fr. Felicjan Sierotowicz as our new parochial vicar, also on Tuesday. Fr. Felicjan comes to us after serving most recently as parochial vicar at Our Lady of the Lakes, a multi-church parish centered in Penn Yan, and prior to that as a prison chaplain and chaplain at Mercy Rehab, and assisting at parishes in Auburn. Fr. Felicjan is originally from near Krakow, Poland, but has lived and ministered in our diocese since 1999. Fr. Felicjan will be residing with me at St. Mary's rectory. He is scheduled to preside at his first Mass in our parish on Thursday, June 28 at St. Mary's. I trust that you will show him the same kindness and patience with which you welcomed me to our parish. Please keep Fr. Felicjan in your prayers during his transition.

Yours,
Fr. John

RENEWING AND REFRESHING ADULT FAITH

Each week for the summer, a parishioner will reflect on a section of Pope Francis' Call to Holiness: his new Apostolic Exhortation Gaudete et Exsultate (Rejoice and Be Glad), which you can read at <http://w2.vatican.va>

Introduction (paragraphs 1-18)

The Second Vatican Council did not address some important questions, such as the basic top-down, hierarchical structures of the Church. However, one of its most significant shifts in perspective was that regarding our universal call to holiness. By our common Baptism, God calls us each to grow in holiness, no matter our state or condition. Pope Francis' intent is to set out this call "in a practical way for our time, with all its risks, challenges, and opportunities." (¶2)

We are born into encircling communities of family, culture, and faith: no one is born or survives alone. Francis speaks of the community of saints who by their particular example may inspire us on our journey back to the God, who is a community of immense love for each of us. Take a few moments, he suggests, to think about the people who have influenced your life. Did someone challenge you to learn something new? Take an unfamiliar path? Join a new group? Help you find a job? Support you in a crisis? All these are the saints who have walked with you and nurtured your growth in maturity and service.

In his document, Francis gives very simple and clear descriptions of how to be holy: "We are all called to be holy by living our lives with love and by bearing witness in everything we do, wherever we find ourselves" (¶15).

All are called to be welcomed into God's circle of community, drawn by each one's unique gifts and needs.

LITURGY OF THE WORD FOR CHILDREN

Each Sunday, during the 10:00am Mass at Blessed Sacrament, we offer Liturgy of the Word for Children. Children, ages 4-8, from are welcome to participate. This is an opportunity for our young friends to hear the Sunday readings proclaimed and "broken open" with age appropriate language and conversation. The children are called forth following the Opening Prayer of Mass, blessed and sent forth with adult volunteers to a designated room in the church. They rejoin their families during the Presentation of the Gifts. Volunteers are trained and serve on a rotating basis.

This has been offered at both St. Boniface and St. Mary's in the past, but discontinued due to lack of volunteers and children. We would like to gauge interest in offering it again. What do you think? If there are people who would like to serve as leaders (adults and teen helpers) and if we have children who would like to participate please contact Sister Kathleen 585 507-9961 or Kathleen.wayne@dor.org
