A WORD FROM FR. JOHN...

Today, we celebrate the feast of the Most Holy Trinity. If you are like me, perhaps your mind races to notions of three in one and one in three. And before long my eyes glaze over and I just walk away, because approaching the Trinity as a math problem makes no sense to me, nor should it. In talking of the persons of the Trinity and their relationship to one another and to us, Jesus never presents it as a mathematical equation.

Instead, in revealing God to us as one in three persons, Jesus focuses more on the divine persons – Father, Son and Holy Spirit – and their relationship with one another and with us. Also, we need to appreciate that in revealing God to us, Jesus does it as one of us, fully human. That makes sense, since we are equipped to interact with and relate to our fellow human beings. I cannot think, act, speak, understand or do anything as a divine person. That is beyond me. What I can know about God is always mediated through and in human terms. Jesus, the Son of God, shows us his Father in how he speaks and acts, loves and cares, etc. – in how he is in being human.

Yet, like the disciples, who followed and lived with him in his earthly ministry, we can be confused by some of things he says and does. It can all be as clear as mud, as the saying goes. But, like those disciples, following Jesus' Ascension, we too are given the Holy Spirit, who leads us to more and more of the truth of what is revealed to us in Jesus' words and actions. So, like the Son, the Holy Spirit too has a role in revealing to us who God is, especially who God is for us, as human beings made in the image and likeness of God.

So, our humanity is a key to our coming to understand God as one in three persons. But at the same time, our humanity places a limit on what we can know about our Triune God. We can never know God as a divine person knows God. We are not divine; we are only human. Yet, since God is infinite and so far transcends us as human beings, we always can be learning more and more about God. That may require a certain humility, as we come to terms with our limited humanity. But, when we think about hoping to spend all of eternity with God in heaven, we can look forward to coming to know and love more and more about this God in three persons forever and ever. No chance of getting bored, as something new and amazing about the Holy Trinity always awaits us.

Hopefully, those of you who were able to join us for the Chicken BBQ at St. Boniface last Saturday evening had as enjoyable time as I did. The food, the organization, the people, the weather, the priest in the chicken suit (not me!) were excellent, if not perfect. I would like to thank all of those who had a hand in bringing this together in a short time frame and putting on a terrific event. I have to agree with a fellow parishioner, who summed it up nicely, when he said, "I just wanted to say that the BBQ was great! These kind of events really bring together St. Boniface, Blessed Sacrament, and St. Mary's parishioners. And it really shows the community what a vibrant and welcoming Catholic presence we are." And I look forward to more such events in our parish in the weeks and months ahead.

One upcoming opportunity is the Open House at St. Mary's on June 22 & 23, where we will mark the church's 185th anniversary and welcome folks who will be in the neighborhood for the Jazz Fest. Inserted in our bulletin today is a flyer with a schedule and information about the Open House. We encourage anyone who would like to volunteer, especially on Sunday evening, please to contact the parish office to sign up. And we look forward to welcoming as many of you as possible to come visit and celebrate with us.

While many of our parish programs go on summer hiatus, a new Summer Bible Study focusing on the Acts of the Apostles has started on Monday evenings from June 10-July 29. Please keep an eye out for the other upcoming summer events in our parish, including the Red Wings game on July 13; PlayROCs Your Neighborhood also on July 13; Vacation Bible Camp, July 22-26; Grilling with God on July 27; Gateways Music Fest on August 11; and our Parish Picnic on August 18.

I would like to thank those who have generously supported our youth, who will be attending the National Catholic Youth Conference in November. Between their baked food sale on June 1 & 2 and their Take Stock In Youth fundraiser, they have been able to raise over $4,000.00 so far. This is a great start to our efforts to raise the roughly $800 per person needed to send our seven youth and three adult chaperones on this faith-inspiring pilgrimage. If you would like to make a donation to our youth for this trip, you may do so online via our parish website or by placing a donation in an envelope marked "NCYC" and dropping it in the collection. Checks may be made payable to Blessed Sacrament with "NCYC" in the memo line. Thanks.

Lastly, next weekend, June 22 & 23, will be Fr. Felician's last with us before he starts his new position as a full time hospital chaplain. Receptions will be held after the 5:00PM Mass at St. Boniface and 10:00AM Mass at Blessed Sacrament as we wish him well in his new assignment. The following weekend, we will honor Beverly LaBelle, our pastoral associate, who is retiring after 21 years of service to our parish. Receptions will be held after the 10:00AM and 12:15PM Masses on June 30 at Blessed Sacrament to thank her and wish her well in her retirement. May God bless them both.

Yours,
Fr. John

Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

On Sunday, June 23rd we will celebrate the patronal feast of Blessed Sacrament Parish. You are invited to join us in the church at Blessed Sacrament for Exposition and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament from 1:30-2:30. Benediction will conclude the holy hour of quiet prayer. You are invited to come for all or any part of the hour of exposition. Benediction will begin at 2:30. All are welcome.

Farewell Reception for Father Felician

Father Felician's final weekend with us as Parochial Vicar will be June 22-23. There will be an opportunity to thank him and wish him well on Saturday, following the 5:00 PM Mass at St. Boniface and Sunday, following the 10:00 AM Mass at Blessed Sacrament. Beginning June 25th, Fr. Felician will be serving as full time chaplain at Strong, Highland and Unity Hospitals. He will remain in residence at St Mary's Rectory.

The NCYC Pilgrims wish to thank everyone for their generous support at the bake sale and "Take Stock in our Youth" weekend!

If you have not yet given, and would like to, you can still place a donation in the collection basket clearly marked "NCYC" on the envelope or on the memo line of your check. You may also donate online! Go to our website at www.southeastrochestercatholics.org and click on the button entitled "Ways you can Give". Under online giving, click on your church, click on the "Quick Give" button. Where it says "Sunday Donation", click on the drop down menu and choose "NCYC". Fill in the information and submit! Thank you for your generosity!

Are you being called? To a richer, fuller life? A deeper prayer life?

Have you ever considered bringing the Holy Eucharist to someone who is sick? It has been a life changing experience for me to take Holy Communion to the patients at Highland Hospital. They so appreciate the gift of Jesus brought to them when they are being challenged by a physical ailment, facing surgery or difficult treatments.

There is one woman who has been in the hospital for many months. She looks forward to our visits each week to bring her into communion with God. There are six of us, in teams of two, who take turns going on Sunday. We see about 30 patients each and that takes about an hour and a half or two depending on how chatty people are. There is training available on "How to visit the sick" and you must complete an orientation and volunteer screening at Highland Hospital. Once you are all cleared, you can shadow one of us for a few times until you feel comfortable going out on your own. If you would like to talk more about it please contact me, Sue Howard, Pastoral Associate 271-7240.

RENEWING AND REFRESHING ADULT FAITH
To everyone to whom much has been given, much will be required... Luke 12:48

Once upon a time... or Many years ago...

A 25-year old widow moved her four children from New York City to Philadelphia, hoping to be employed and keep her family together. Soon, that become impossible and she petitioned the Court for help. The ruling was to send the children, ages 6, 5, 4, and 3, to St. Vincent's Orphan Asylum. I am the eldest of those children. We were placed according to age and gender and saw little of each other. The School Sisters of Notre Dame accepted us, along with hundreds of other children, and gave us warmth and comfort. They fed and clothed us. They educated us. They disciplined us. They taught us about God and Jesus... daily Mass and weekly Penance. They cared for us when we were sick... including kerosene and sugar in a common cup, with a common spoon to avoid catching colds. They did all of this without favoring anyone of us. Everything about our placement seemed quite normal and I, as the oldest, assumed that this is the way children everywhere grew up.

Much later in life, it became apparent to me that we had been given wonderful care and a very safe environment... and that I owed some of that type of care to others. For that reason, I have attempted to take part in several situations which involve Social Justice... and there are endless opportunities. The reward is intangible and gratifying. The good feelings are priceless, and the boost in morale is wonderful. If you need a "lift", try helping those who might "need a hand"!

SUMMER BIBLE STUDY OPPORTUNITY

—A Follow Up to our all parish read The Greatest Lie in the History of Christianity by Matthew Kelly

Join us on Monday evenings beginning June 10th for a series that unpacks teachings from the Acts of the Apostles and how they can help us share our faith (evangelize) others today. This series, produced by The Augustine Institute, uses a Lectio Divina approach (reading, reflecting, contemplating and responding) to take our conversation to a deeper level.

The sessions will be held in the school at Blessed Sacrament on Monday evenings 6:00-7:30 pm June 10-July 29. Each session, facilitated by Sister Kathleen, will include a video presentation and group discussion. For more information contact Sister Kathleen at the Faith Formation Office 507-9961 or Kathleen.wayne@dor.org

WE NEED YOUR HELP AT VACATION BIBLE CAMP—JULY 22-26

We are looking for someone who can volunteer as our “nurse” during our camp (Monday-Friday 8:45-Noon). Your tasks would be care for those who need a little TLC, tend to campers who may have a cut, scrape or bruise, monitor allergies, the campers forms and the door. This is a GREAT way to get to know the kids in our parish.

Music help! We have some great songs (along with a DVD of the music with body movement) that we use to encourage the kids and promote the theme of the week. Do you like to have fun with singing? Do you like to encourage kids to sing? This might be just the place for you to volunteer. We need you at the beginning of the morning (think 8:50-9:15 and then again at the end of the morning (11:45-Noon). You can even bring your kids along. Trust me....you will LOVE the songs.

If you would like to help in these areas (or other ways) during VBC, contact Sister Kathleen kathleen.wayne@dor.org or 507-9961. All volunteers will be asked to participate in the Creating a Safe Environment Training process.

It is a group that you can listen to for hours and what better place than in the shadow of St. Mary's church. Join us on Saturday at 4:00 Mass/5:00 Garden or Sunday at 10:30 Mass/12:30 Garden. While at 15 St. Mary's Place, take time to view the stained-glass windows and historical display.
