Sanctus Redemptor

Holy Redeemer Catholic Church – West Main Street at Berry Avenue

From the Pastor's Office...

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Everything depends on what we celebrate today. Or rather, everything depends on who we celebrate. Our Lord Jesus is gloriously risen from the dead. Everything has its meaning, life and existence in him. All creation, fallen in a world of darkness, has been redeemed by his sacrifice, death and resurrection.

The Easter Vigil starts with a large fire, that in turn, lights up the church by the members carrying a little bit of that same fire. There was another large fire, at the beginning of Holy Week, at the glorious cathedral of Paris, Notre Dame, in France. It was half destroyed by the considerable fire.

It is warming to a priest's heart to hear accounts of people coming back to the faith despite this sad event. They saw the destruction of the grand cathedral and they considered the Church as a whole. They have considered the downward path of society and their own lives. They don't despair of the loss of the cathedral building itself but rather they weep for themselves and their children. They went to confession, amended their lives and have again committed to practicing regularly the Catholic faith.

Christ, who is our light shines in this world of darkness. He shines in our hearts and gives us supernatural faith, hope and love. Everything depends on him who has conquered the depths and darkness of death.

Our Lord is a blazing fire. His mercy is infinite, which also in turn means his justice is infinite. We are either with Christ or against him. We are either for God or against him. We will shine like stars in the heaven for all eternity or burn eternally in Hell.

Everything depends on his resurrection celebrated today. Do you reject the glittery temptations of sin and profess God, risen from the dead? Make a choice today. You cannot serve two masters. Everything, every day, every moment depends on Jesus, who is alive and with us always. Get in his grace. Stay in his grace. Burn as a fire to light up the world.

In Christ, Fr. Eddie
