Holy Redeemer Catholic Church
West Main at Berry Avenue

From the Pastor's Office...

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Even though Thanksgiving is arguably at the forefront of everyone's mind in November we should more so keep in mind all the faithful departed. The poor souls in Purgatory and all the saints in Heaven remind us that our bellies are full only for a short time, even if it is for a day and leftovers fill them for a few more. What is most important is our spiritual wellbeing. The spiritual should always be above the corporeal.

So much focus is given to material wellbeing these days. People panic when the shelves are empty. What great sadness that there was not such a panic when the Bread of Life was limited last year.

We are made of soul and body. "Memento Mori"! Remember death! The condition of our souls at death determine whether our bodies and souls will be in eternal bliss or eternal agony. This is why we remember the poor souls this month. They are helped by our prayers and sacrifices to be purified (in soul) of all attachments and enter into Heaven. We do them a great disservice if we don't take care of our souls and offer the infinite merits of our Lord on their behalf. Give thanks this month! Pray well! Fill up on soul food too.

In Christ,
Fr. Eddie

*Watch over them, O Lord, as their days increase; bless and guide them wherever they may be.
