PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Fr. Zimmer will host Theology on Tap on Sept. 26th at 2 p.m. in the rectory. The topic is on medical ethics.

St. Mary's Parish Council Elections will be held next weekend, Oct. 2nd & 3rd. Ballots will be in the pews.

A Dedication Ceremony and Open House for Fruits of Mary will be held Sunday, Oct. 3rd beginning at 4:30 p.m. with an outside rosary (weather permitting) and a blessing of our facility led by Fr. Zimmer. The open house will follow from 5-6:00 p.m. Parishioners and enrolled families of our child care program are welcome to pray with us, see the progress of the daycare, and enjoy some fellowship. Snacks and refreshments will be served.

Enrollment Update One full-time spot for a child 18 months+ has opened up. Only two spots remain for a 1-day contract – a great option for the stay-at-home parent or part-time employee! Interested? Please email fruitsofmary123@gmail.com. We anticipate these spots to fill up quickly, so let us know as soon as possible. Note: our infant spots are full with 3+ families on the waiting list.

Claydon Claus will soon be working on his Eagle Scout project. Clay and Fr. Zimmer have worked together and have decided to construct an engraved pavers brick memorial garden for all mothers living and deceased to be installed at St. Mary's. Details will be available soon on how to purchase these engraved pavers. This garden has been approved by St. Mary's and our local and district Scouting offices as a wonderful Eagle Scout project for Claydon to achieve the highest and final ranking as a BSA member. To the right is a sample brick:

Each parish will be collecting diapers throughout October for the Pro-Life Diaper Drive. These donations are then given to places like Catholic Social Services in Hastings and Lincoln to support families in need.
