PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

St. Mary's Parish Council Elections will be held this weekend, Oct. 2nd & 3rd. Ballots will be in the pews. Please vote for TWO members to be on the council and place your ballots in the collection basket.

A Dedication Ceremony and Open House for Fruits of Mary will be held Sunday, Oct. 3rd at 4:30 p.m. with an outside rosary (north side of hall) and a blessing of our facility led by Fr. Zimmer. The open house will follow from 5-6:00 p.m. in the parish hall basement. All are welcome!

No Adoration on Tuesday, Oct. 5th.

St. Mary's, Sutton - The annual Bishop's Appeal for Vocations will take place starting this weekend. The proceeds support the education expenses for the seminarians (future priests) of our Lincoln Diocese. We are extremely blessed to have a large number of seminarians, and they need our continued support. Please pick up your donor card this weekend. If not picked up, it will be mailed to you next week. See the information sheet in the pews on how to donate. Thank you to our parishioners that always provide great support!

The next Knights of Columbus meeting for the Sutton/Harvard Council will be Sunday October 17th. Please get this on your schedule.

Each parish will be collecting diapers throughout October for the Pro-Life Diaper Drive. These donations are then given to places like Catholic Social Services in Hastings and Lincoln to support families in need.

Claydon Claus will soon be working on his Eagle Scout project. Clay and Fr. Zimmer have worked together and have decided to construct an engraved pavers brick memorial garden for all mothers living and deceased to be installed at St. Mary's. Details will be available soon on how to purchase these engraved pavers. This garden has been approved by St. Mary's and our local and district Scouting offices as a wonderful Eagle Scout project for Claydon to achieve the highest and final ranking as a BSA member.
