Food Panty Ministry

Our parish food pantry donations are not very good. With school out for the summer the children that are utilizing the food pantry are not getting two free meals (breakfast and lunch) at school during the summer so we need to increase our donations.

If we have enough donations we will help both the Dresden and Frazeyburg Food Pantries.

Please be generous.

Divine Mercy Reflections from St. Faustina's Dairy

Jesus said: Oh, how painful it is to Me that souls so seldom unite themselves to Me in Holy Communion. I wait for souls, and they are indifferent toward Me. I love them tenderly and sincerely, and they distrust Me. I want to lavish My graces on them, and they do not want to accept them. They treat Me as a dead object, whereas My Heart is full of love and mercy (Diary, 1447).

What you see in reality, these souls see through faith. Oh, how pleasing to Me is their great faith! You see, although there appears to be no trace of life in Me, in reality it is present in its fullness in each and every Host. But for Me to be able to act upon a soul, the soul must have faith. O how pleasing to Me is living faith! (Diary, 1420).

If God had a refrigerator your picture would be on it.

Two Things to Know about Jesus in the Mass

If you now these two things a lot of why we do what we do will make more sense.

First, the priest, in the Mass is acting in the role of Jesus. In the Mass the priest who is celebrating the Eucharist — who will break the bread and drink the wine — is performing all of his actions in the place of Jesus.

Accordingly, we sit and stand when the priest sits and stands. When altar servers approach the priest during any time of the Mass they bow, to show their reverence to Christ—represented by the priest.

The second important thing to know about Jesus in the Mass is the Catholic theology of transubstantiation. This doctrine, which was believed by the earliest Christians, understands Jesus to be actually present in the consecrated Eucharist. In other words, at a certain point in the Mass we believe that the bread and wine actually become Jesus. At that point, Jesus is actually present in every way except his physical appearance.

Men's Cookout: Spiritual Fatherhood with Deacon Harold Burke-Sivers Friday, June 22, 6-8 on.

Bible Catholic Deacon Harold Burke-Sivers will discuss how the Christian family, under the spiritual leadership of husbands and fathers both in the home and in the parish, is a communion of persons in the image and likeness of the Trinity, and a sacred sign and living sacrament of Christ's love for his Church.

Bring your sons, fathers, grandfathers, uncles and friends and enjoy a cookout prepared by the Knights of Columbus. Deacon Burke-Sivers is from Portland, Oregon and a powerful and passionate evangelist, author of "Behold the Man: A Catholic Vision of Male Spirituality." Come be inspired!

Cost is $10 to help with the cost of dinner

A free-will offering will be taken for Deacon Harold.

Why do Catholics Stand During Mass?

A Catholic Mass, as has been done for over two thousand years begins with what is known as the Penitential Act immediately after the priest in the person of Christ, processes to the sanctuary. In this profoundly rich act Catholics acclaim the ancient Kyrie eleison, asking Jesus, "Lord, have mercy".

We then join in the tradition of the most ancient Christians by confessing our sinfulness to both God and each other—an act which fulfills the New Testament command to confess our sins to one another".

We stand for most of the prayers. Standing has been the proper position for prayer since the time of Christ. By standing we carry on this tradition and highlight the importance of our prayers. We stand, likewise, to show reverence and respect to Jesus. This is the same reason why we stand in the presence of dignitaries and important people. Who, after all, is more important than our God and King?

We stand to mark the importance of the Gospel. To acknowledge that this is what God said. And that's profound.

Why do Catholics Sit During Mass

Sitting is our base for worship. From this position we can only ascend, to stand or descend to kneel.

We begin the Mass by sitting. We sit, likewise, when we're listening to the first two readings during the Mass. These two readings, chosen according to the Lectionary which is followed by the entire Catholic Church worldwide, will typically come from the Old Testament and the New Testament epistles.

We sit to listen to them and to take them in and learn from them to what we hear later, the Gospel, for which we stand. We sit again for the homily and as the celebrant prepares the Eucharistic elements to be consecrated. This is a very expectant time, charged with meaning, because as soon as the priest is ready, we rise to our feet.
