Divine Mercy Reflections from St. Faustina's Dairy

Jesus said: These souls with whom I can do nothing sense their emptiness, but they do not recognize their own guilt, while souls in whom I reign completely are a constant source of remorse to them.

Instead of correcting themselves, their hearts swell with envy, and if they do not come to their senses, they plunge in even deeper. A heart, which thus far is envious, now begins to be filled with hate. And they are already at the edge of the precipice.

They are jealous of My gifts in other souls, but they themselves are unable and unwilling to accept them (Diary, 1717).

The Mass, a new series by Bishop Robert Barron

Mass will be at 7 pm followed by the teaching and then a bonfire. Location: St. Mary You're encouraged to slow down this summer. Why not take this opportunity to enrich your spiritual life.

In the first week of the Bishop Robert Barron series
he pointed out

we either work or we play. When we work we are doing it for a reason—typically to earn money.

Play, on the other hand, we do because we want to. Children are masters of play. Watch a child and see how intently they are focused on their play. They aren't thinking about what needs done or what they need to do tomorrow, they're just focused on their play.

Attending Mass is play time. We attend Mass because we want to. We need to be focused on the Mass and not the chores that need done at home, the phone calls we need to return or the upcoming work week. We need to be focused on our "play".

Mass is a foretaste of heaven where we will worship God for all eternity.

The Mass is so sacred we enter into "God's Time" and we need to leave all the things associated with "our time" at the door.

Heavenly Father, I open my heart wide to receive the love of God.

As I receive God's love as universal supply, all my affairs are healed. I realize and accept the healing power of love, and I allow the healing power that is love to penetrate my life. I readily accept the healing power of love in my life and I know that as love, God is my limitless and abundant supply made manifest. I feel the outpouring of God's love in my body and mind. I feel God's love and know that all is well. Amen.

Potluck lunch

All are welcome.

There is no charge
for the retreat.

Heavenly Father,

forgive me for the times I've attended Mass and not actually been present.

Forgive me for the times I've received Holy Communion and not actively entered into it.

Have mercy on me, Lord.

Set up for Rummage Sale
This Sunday and Next Sunday
Please help after Mass

After the July 29 Mass will be our final set up and we'll need many people to help that day. Please help if you can. The sale has grown to the point where it's overwhelming to set everything up on one day.

Live each day of your life as if it were your last; indeed it could be. Jesus warns us: "He will come like a thief in the night." Be prepared!
