Divine Mercy Reflections from St. Faustina's Diary

Jesus said: Say unceasingly the chaplet that I have taught you. Whoever will recite it will receive great mercy at the hour of death. Priests will recommend it to sinners as their last hope of salvation. Even if there were a sinner most hardened, if he were to recite this chaplet only once, he would receive grace from My infinite mercy. I desire that the whole world know My infinite mercy. I desire to grant unimaginable graces to those souls who trust in My mercy. (Diary, 687).

Love to Sing? Want to be involved in a ministry to help grieving families?

Join the Resurrection Choir!

The Resurrection Choir is made up of members of all four of the Catholic Churches in Muskingum County. We sing at funerals at St. Ann, St. Mary and St. Nicholas Churches.

There are no auditions and no practices. You are notified of the funerals and if you're available, you attend and sing in the choir. There is no minimum number of funerals you have to attend annually.

More members are needed when people are on vacation or while they're spending the winters in Florida.

Many families have told us that our music has brought them comfort during a very difficult time.

To join this worthwhile ministry contact Debbie Lovensheimer, 828-2594.

At Mass we are praying in the midst of thousands of God's Angels.

Adults enter into full communion with the Catholic Church through a process called the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA). The RCIA is for:

- * Adults who have never been baptized
- * Adults Baptized in other Christian traditions who would like to enter into full communion with the Catholic Church.
- * Adults Baptized Catholic who have not yet received Confirmation or First Holy Communion OR who have been away from the Church and would like to rejoin us in full communion.

All are Welcome!

Letter of His Holiness Pope Francis To the People of God

"If one member suffers, all suffer together with it" (1 Cor 12:26). These words of Saint

Paul forcefully echo in my heart as I acknowledge once more the suffering endured by many minors due to sexual abuse, the abuse of power and the abuse of conscience perpetrated by a significant number of clerics and consecrated persons. Crimes that inflict deep wounds of pain and powerlessness, among the victims, but also in their family members and in the larger community of believers and nonbelievers alike. Looking to the past, no effort to beg pardon and to seek to repair the harm done will ever be sufficient.

Looking ahead to the future, no effort must be spared to create a culture able to prevent such situations from happening, but also to prevent the possibility of their being covered up and perpetuated. The pain of the victims and their families is also our pain, and so it is urgent that we once more reaffirm our commitment to ensure the protection of minors and of vulnerable adults.

If one member suffers... In recent days, a report was made public which detailed the experiences of at least a thousand survivors, victims of sexual abuse, the abuse of power and of conscience at the hands of priests over a period of approximately seventy years. Even though it can be said that most of these cases belong to the past, nonetheless as time goes on we have come to know the pain of many of the victims. We have realized that these wounds never disappear and that they require us forcefully to condemn these atrocities and join forces in uprooting this culture of death; these wounds never go away. The heart-wrenching pain of these victims, which cries out to heaven, was long ignored, kept quiet or silenced.

With shame and repentance, we acknowledge as an ecclesial community that we were not where we should have been, that we did not act in a timely manner, realizing the magnitude and the gravity of the damage done to so many lives. We showed no care for the little ones; we abandoned them. I make my own the words of the then Cardinal Ratzinger when, during the Way of the Cross on Good Friday 2005, he identified with the cry of pain of so many victims and exclaimed: "How much filth there is in the Church, and even among those who, in the priesthood, ought to belong entirely to [Christ]! How much pride, how much self-complacency!"
