Divine Mercy Reflections from St. Faustina's Diary

Jesus said:

I desire that you know more profoundly the love that burns in My Heart for souls, and you will understand this when you meditate upon My Passion. Call upon My mercy on behalf of sinners; I desire their salvation. When you say this prayer, with a contrite heart and with faith on behalf of some sinner, I will give him the grace of conversion. This is the prayer: (Diary, 186).

"O Blood and Water, which gushed forth from the Heart of Jesus as a fount of Mercy for us, I trust in You." (Diary, 187).

Please remember our family goal of one item/week.

Holy Humor — The Thinner

Once there was a dishonest painter who used to water down his paint far too much. One day, as he was painting the steeple of a church building, thunderclouds gathered and rain washed all his thinned-down paint away. Then followed a booming voice out of heaven, saying, "Repaint, and thin no more."

That those who administer justice may work with integrity, and that the injustice which prevails in the world may not have the last word.

7th Annual Rummage Sale August 2 & 3

Please set your items on the appropriate tables or on the hard floor, not the carpet. The tables are labeled.

It would be a big help if you could label your bags of clothing "children", "women" or "men".

Please no TV's, electronics or old textbooks (fiction is alright). Thank you!

Summer Blessing

Walk along beside me, Jesus, as I go through these months of summer. As I work, play, enjoy family time and friendships, may I hear Your voice within me, guiding me toward all that is right and good.

Give me faith in Your presence, knowing that You walk beside me in everything I do.

Gracious and loving Jesus, thank You for the gift of summer. May the warmth of its sun and the beauty of its light remind me daily of Your love for me. Amen.

Guard against foul talk;

let your words be for the improvement of others, as occasion offers, and do good to your listeners, otherwise you will only be grieving the Holy Spirit of God who has marked you with his seal for you to be set free when the day comes.

Never have grudges against others, or lose your temper, or raise your voice to anybody, or call each other names, or allow any sort of spitefulness.

Be friends with one another, and kind, forgiving each other as readily as God forgave you in Christ.

Words are Powerful

When I was about eight or nine, my mom burnt some toast.

One night after a very long and rough day at work, She placed a plate of jam and extremely burned toast in front of my dad. Not slightly burnt but completely blackened toast.

I was just waiting to see if anyone noticed the burnt toast and would say anything. But Dad just ate his toast and asked me if I did my homework and how my day was. I don't remember what I told him that night, but I do remember hearing my mom apologizing to dad for burning the toast. And I'll never forget what he said: "Sweetie, I love burned toast."

Later that night, I told my dad good night and asked him if he really liked his toast burned. He put his arm on my shoulder and said, "Your momma put in a very long day at work today and she was very tired. And besides, burned toast never hurts anyone but you know what does? Harsh words!"

Then he continued to say "You know, life is full of imperfect things and imperfect people. I'm not the best at hardly anything, and I forget special days just like every other human.

What I've learned over the years, is that learning to accept each others' faults and choosing to celebrate each others' differences, is one of the most important keys for creating a healthy, growing, and lasting relationship.

Life is too short to wake up with regrets. Love the people who treat you right and have compassion for the ones who don't."
