Divine Mercy Reflections from St. Faustina's Diary

Jesus said: My child, make the resolution never to rely on people. Entrust yourself completely to My will saying, "Not as I want, but according to Your will, O God, let it be done unto me." These words, spoken from the depths of one's heart, can raise a soul to the summit of sanctity in a short time.

In such a soul I delight. Such a soul gives Me glory. Such a soul fills heaven with the fragrance of her virtue. But understand that the strength by which you bear sufferings comes from frequent Communions. So approach this fountain of mercy often, to draw with the vessel of trust whatever you need (Diary, 1487).

Sanctity of Human Life Sunday

Origin: On January 13, 1984 President Ronald Reagan issued a proclamation designating January 22 as the National Sanctity of Human Life Day. (January 22, 1973 was the day the U.S. Supreme Court legalized abortion-on-demand in all 50 states.)

Churches around the United States recognize the third Sunday of January as a day to celebrate God's gift of life, commemorate the many lives lost to abortion and commit themselves to protecting human life at every stage.
