Pope Francis' tweet March 1: I ask you to remember me in your prayers

A Eucharist Miracle took place in Argentina in 1996 when Bishop Jorge Bergoglio (now Pope Francis) was an auxiliary bishop. A consecrated Host was found on the ground. In accordance with liturgical norms, when a Host is found the priest is to put it in a glass of water to dissolve. After the Host is dissolved, the water is to be poured on the ground in a spot where it will not be disturbed, i.e. a flower bed.

The Host was indeed placed in water to dissolve. Days later the Eucharist hadn't dissolved at all—it had turned into bloody Flesh. It was placed in a tabernacle to decompose. Three years later, the bloody Flesh had grown in size. Samples were sent to a laboratory in New York to be examined by two scientists, an atheist and a Catholic. Neither scientist was told where the samples came from. Their results were the same.

Dr. Zugiba, one of the scientists, testified that, "the analyzed material is a fragment of the heart muscle found in the wall of the left ventricle close to the valves. This muscle is responsible for the contraction of the heart.
The left ventricle pumps blood to all parts of the body. The heart muscle is in an inflammatory condition and contains a large number of white blood cells. This indicates that the heart was alive at the time the sample was taken. Furthermore, the white cells indicate that the heart had been under severe stress, as if the owner had been beaten severely about the chest."

Dr. Castañón, the other scientist who was an atheist at the time of the tests, is now a Catholic.

THE EUCHARIST HEART OF THE CHURCH'S LIFE

Sunday, March 8, 2020 Sacred Heart Church, Coshocton at 7:00 pm

As Catholics, we believe in the True Presence of Christ in the Eucharist.

But why do we believe what we believe? Is the Eucharist really the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus? What is the Biblical evidence?

In this presentation, Deacon Doug Mould will present a Biblical-Historical foundation to our belief in the True Presence of Christ in the Eucharist.

Meditation:

My Jesus, when I repeatedly ask You for something and I get no reply and nothing seems to change in my life, I fear that You are not there. I grow discouraged and I feel alone. Help me to trust in You in the midst of the darkness. Teach me how to walk by faith and not by sight. I place my hope in You, and I believe that Your love and mercy are as deep as the ocean. There is nothing that is beyond Your power. Strengthen my faith, O Lord!

-Meditation by Fr. Joseph Roesch, MIC
