Divine Mercy Reflections from St. Faustina's Diary

Jesus said: The loss of each soul plunges Me into mortal sadness. You always console Me when you pray for sinners. The prayer most pleasing to Me is prayer for the conversion of sinners. Know, My daughter, that this prayer is always heard and answered My daughter, My pleasure and delight, nothing will stop Me from granting you graces. Your misery does not hinder My mercy.

Jesus said: My daughter, write that the greater the misery of a soul, the greater its right to My mercy; [urge] all souls to trust in the unfathomable abyss of My mercy, because I want to save them all. On the cross, the fountain of My mercy was opened wide by the lance for all souls — no one have I excluded! (Diary, 1397 / 1182).

Prayer for Pentecost

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.

Send forth your spirit, and they shall be created and you will renew the face of the earth.

O God, you teach the hearts of the faithful by giving them the light of the Holy Spirit.

Grant that, in the same spirit, we may be wise and rejoice in His consolation. Amen.

Pentecost Sunday is one of the most ancient feasts of the Church, celebrated early enough to be mentioned in the Acts of the Apostles (20:16)) and St. Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians (16:8). It is the 50th day after Easter (if we count both Easter and Pentecost), and it supplants the Jewish feast of Pentecost, which took place 50 days after the Passover celebrated the sealing of the Old Covenant on Mount Sinai.

History: The Acts of the Apostles recounts the story of the original Pentecost. Jews from all over were gathered in Jerusalem to celebrate the Jewish feast. On that Sunday, ten days after the Ascension of Our Lord, the Apostles and the Blessed Virgin Mary were gathered in the Upper Room, where they had seen Christ after His Resurrection.

Christ had promised His Apostles that He would send His Holy Spirit, and, on Pentecost, they were granted the gifts of the Spirit. The Apostles began to preach the Gospel in all of the languages that the Jews who were gathered there spoke, and about 3,000 people were converted and baptized that day.

That is why Pentecost is often called "the birthday of the Church." On this day, with the descent of the Holy Spirit the mission is completed,

Honor Mary
May is known as the
"Month of Mary"

Mary, the Mother of God and first and best disciple of Jesus, holds a special place in Catholic hearts and homes. She teaches us faith, humility, and love for God and others. We look to her as our model and heavenly mother, and have many ways to show our devotion. Here is one:

Create a Mary garden outside. A Mary garden consists of a statue of Mary and some flowers—any color and any amount.

Daily Masses in June:
Tuesdays, 8 pm at St Ann and Thursdays, 7 pm at St Mary.

Five of our young men and women graduate from high school this year. They are:

- Daisy Beale
- Tracy Beale
- Adam House
- Dylan Long
- Brandon Miller

Please pray for these graduates.

Prayer for Graduating Students

God, we thank you for these graduating students. We pray that you will give them direction, purpose, and perseverance as they enter the next phrase of their lives.

Give them clearness of mind to move forward into the plans and purposes that You have for them. May these young people gain wisdom from You and have discernment for proper behavior. Raise up Christian mentors for these graduates so they have someone who holds them accountable for their actions. We pray that they will rise above ungodly behaviors and have the boldness to stand up for what is right wherever they work, study, or socialize.

Grant them success for their efforts at every turn and guide their feet to follow Your ways. May they be eager to do good and not evil all the days of their lives, Amen.

Enthronement of Sacred Heart in the Home.

If you are interested please call the office, 740-754-2221, or talk to Deacon Dave Lozowski.
Acknowledge Christ as your King by Enthroning your home.

Thoughts from the Deacon:

Finally some good news and a return to the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass!!
God be praised.

I am happy to announce that starting next Tuesday, June 2, 2020, we will be having some daily Masses in our Parish. Tuesday 8:00 pm at St. Ann and Thursday 7:00 pm at St. Mary.

Fr. Blubaugh has graciously agreed to say Mass for us. We are confirmed through the month of June at this time.

Fr. Stahura celebrated his 25th anniversary of his Ordination to the Priesthood this past May 6. We are greatly indebted to him for covering so many Masses for us. If you want to give a card or small token of appreciation, please bring them to Mass and put them in the offertory baskets. They will be in the back of Church as we are currently not passing the baskets.

RCIA candidates will be brought into the Church with Confirmation and First Holy Communion on June 6, 2020. Please keep Kari Elizabeth Dailey and Suzanne Daily in your prayers as they join the One Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church.

The roofers are working at St Ann this week. Please refrain from visiting the Church until the work is done.
St Mary is open daily for adoration.

Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil.

May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
