Divine Mercy Reflections from St. Faustina's Dairy

Jesus said: To comfort you, let Me tell you that there are souls living in the world who love Me dearly. I dwell in their hearts with delight. But they are few. (Diary, 367).

Jesus said: ... I want to tell you that eternal life must begin already here on earth through Holy Communion. Each Holy Communion makes you more capable of communing with God throughout eternity (Diary, 1811).

Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil.

May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

RELIGIOUS FREEDOM
WEEK

Fortnight for Freedom is June 21 — July 4.

The U.S. Bishops ask that all Catholics pray for religious freedom at this time as well as throughout the year.

Prayer intentions for June 21:

Pray that governments would respect the consciences of the Little Sisters of the Poor and all Christians who care for the sick and vulnerable.

Reflect

For centuries, the Church has carried on the healing ministry of Christ by building institutions dedicated to medicine and accompaniment of the dying. Indeed, the Church invented the hospital as we know it today

Today, orders like the Little Sisters of the Poor serve elderly low-income Americans of all backgrounds. But the Little Sisters' work is at risk because of lawsuits brought by the states of California and Pennsylvania against the expanded religious and moral exemption to the HHS mandate, and Catholic hospitals are constantly defending themselves against lawsuits and government orders that try to force them to participate in procedures such as abortion.

It is unthinkable that we would undermine our mission to heal by destroying innocent life and harming the persons for whom we are called to care.

In Bishop Robert Barron's homily on Pentecost Sunday

"The Spirit is the chain that connects the Father and the Son.

The Spirit is the love that God is."

Daily Offering

In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ I will begin this day.

I thank you, Lord, for having preserved me during the night. I will do my best to make all I do today pleasing to You and in accordance with Your will. My dear mother Mary, watch over me this day. My Guardian Angel, take care of me. St. Joseph and all you saints of God, pray for me.

O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer You my prayers, works, joys and sufferings of this day for all the intentions of Your Sacred Heart, in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world, in reparation for my sins, for all the poor souls in purgatory, for the intentions of all my relatives and friends, and in particular for the intentions of the Holy Father.

I wish to gain all the indulgences attached to the prayers I shall say and the good works I shall perform this day. Amen

A Biblical Walk Through the Mass

Did you know?

- ☼ Our scripture readings are on a three year cycle? Cycle A, B and C.
- ☼ If you go to Mass every Sunday for three years you will have read/heard all of the Bible.
- ☼ If you go to daily Mass for two years you will have read/heard all of the Bible

Some Catholics say they don't read the Bible but in reality they do — by attending Mass.

There are different levels of knowledge of the Bible:

Verse Knowledge—you can quote chapter and verse and Passage Knowledge — you know the story.

Most Catholics have Passage Knowledge.

The promise of Jesus:

I am always with you.
