Divine Mercy Reflections from St. Faustina's Dairy

Jesus said: I will tell you most when you converse with Me in the depths of your heart. Here, no one can disturb My actions. Here, I rest as in a garden enclosed (Diary, 581).

Jesus said: When you reflect upon what I tell you in the depths of your heart, you profit more than if you had read many books. Oh, if souls would only want to listen to My voice when I am speaking in the depths of their hearts, they would reach the peak of holiness in a short time (Diary, 584).

The Bishop's Annual Appeal begins July 11.

This year's theme is "Living the Joy of the Gospel".

We are called to be good stewards and God is always generous with each of us. The average pledge in the 2018 Appeal was $388.

All monies collected over our parish goal will be returned for our special projects including: the new roof at St. Ann, repairing the wall on the inside of St. Ann and repointing of St. Mary church, replacing the speakers for the bells in the steeple of St. Ann and updating the storm windows at both parishes.

Our Catholic Foundation and Diocese have been generous to us over the years in many ways. Your generosity is greatly appreciated. We encourage 100% participation and no gift is too small. Please prayerfully consider your gift.

The next Women's Study Group is Tuesday, July 7, at 6 pm at St. Mary's Shelter House

All women of the parish and friends are invited.

Daily Offering

In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ I will begin this day.

I thank you, Lord, for having preserved me during the night.

O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer You my prayers, works, joys and sufferings of this day for all the intentions of Your Sacred Heart, in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world, in reparation for my sins and all sins, for all the poor souls in purgatory, for the intentions of all my relatives and friends, and in particular for the intentions of the Holy Father.

I wish to gain all the indulgences attached to the prayers I shall say and the good works I shall perform this day. Amen

Deacon David is an inspiration to all of us. Thank you for all you do for us.

Congratulations Deacon David!

We're still working on how we're going to handle social distancing during the sale

Please keep your items behind the wall in the back of the hall, because the hall is being used July 11.

*Please no TV's, electronics or old textbooks.

Women's Study Group

Our June Women of the Church Study is on Rahab of the Old Testament.

Rahab was a Canaanite woman who lived in Jericho. She was likely not the "model citizen" prior to her conversion to the God and faith of the Israelites. Yet God placed her in a position where she was able to effect salvation history—and she came through! With Rahab's help, the Israelites were able to conquer Jericho and enter the Promised Land. Rahab's story shows us the incredible way God can use any person to help fulfill his work and will.

If you have a past you're not proud of, don't despair. God's grace is sufficient to transform a bad reputation into a sterling one. All that is required is faith—faith in the One, Jesus Christ, who came through the lineage of a harlot. And when someone reminds you of your past, courageously stand and declare: "What I once was, I am not now. I am a new person, for the One who died once for me has given me a new name— daughter of the Messiah." (See Romans 6:10; 2 Corinthians 5:17; Revelation 2:17.)

Go to Joshua Chapters 1-6 to read about Rahab, the Israelite spies, Joshua and the battle of Jerico.
