Divine Mercy Reflections from St. Faustina's Dairy

Jesus said: These souls with whom I can do nothing sense their emptiness, but they do not recognize their own guilt, while souls in whom I reign completely are a constant source of remorse to them. Instead of correcting themselves, their hearts swell with envy, and if they do not come to their senses, they plunge in even deeper. A heart, which thus far is envious, now begins to be filled with hate. And they are already at the edge of the precipice. They are jealous of My gifts in other souls, but they themselves are unable and unwilling to accept them.

(Diary, 1717)

Jesus said: Know, My daughter, that between Me and you there is a bottomless abyss, an abyss which separates the Creator from the creature. But this abyss is filled with My mercy. I raise you up to Myself, not that I have need of you, but it is solely out of mercy that I grant you the grace of union with Myself.

(Diary, 1576)

Love the Lord your God with all your heart, all your soul and with all your mind and love your neighbor as thyself. - Matthew 22:37-38

Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle,
be our protection against the wickedness and snare of the devil.
May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God,
cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

"Lord, teach me to be generous;

Teach me to serve you
as you deserve;
To give and not to count the cost;
To fight and not to heed the wounds;
To toil, and not to seek for rest;
To labor, and not to ask for reward - except to know that I am doing your will." - St. Ignatius of Loyola

Reverence to God

Why do we kneel?

To show reverence to God.

Why do we bow toward the altar?

To show reverence to God.

Why do we bow during the Creed?

To show reverence to God.

Having reverence for God means that we acknowledge His lordship in every area of our lives and we obey what He commands. While He was on earth, Jesus was heard by God "because of His reverence," which lets us know that God will also hear us when we pray from a heart of reverence. (Hebrews 5:7)

"We who are receiving the unshakable kingdom should have gratitude, with which we should offer worship pleasing to God in reverence and awe."

We don't go to Mass for ourselves but to give praise, glory, homage and reverence to God.

We need to practice small acts of reverence so they become habits, the habits then become virtues.

Help Father Blubaugh, Volunteers Needed to Provide Dinner

We're looking for folks who can provide dinner for Fr. Blubaugh on Saturday evenings after Mass.

Options are to either invite him to your home or take him to a restaurant.

He does so much for us we'd like to arrange dinner for him.

If you're interested please call the office, 740-754-1221, and let Martha know. Thank you.

O Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy on us.

Use of Parish Hall

There has been some confusion about the use of the Parish Hall. From now on any use of the halls at either St. Ann or St. Mary must be approved/registered through the parish office. If you are currently using the hall routinely call Martha and let her know so we can establish a calendar to avoid conflicts.

Any change of the date or time needs to be approved. We are not trying to restrict usage, just avoid conflicts and to have a calendar and usage of the hall.

Tools For School

Your Knights of Columbus Council is teaming up this year with Eastside Ministry to help kids with school supplies.

Please drop off supplies in the box at St. Ann/St. Mary.

Most needed items are Expo dry erase markers, Sharpie Highlighters, Spiral notebook, Composition books, 24 box Crayola crayons, Glue sticks, Pink erasers, Pointed fiscal scissors, Wide tip Crayola markers, Pencil pouches.

Thank you for your generosity.

Feast of the Assumption

On Aug. 15, Catholics around the world mark the Feast of the Assumption of Mary, commemorating the end of her earthly life and assumption into Heaven.

But while the feast day is a relatively new one, the history of the holiday – and the mystery behind it – has its roots in the earliest centuries of Christian belief.

The Catholic Church teaches that when Mary ended her earthly life, God assumed her, body and soul into heaven. The dogma of the Assumption of Mary has its roots in the early centuries of the Church.

While a site outside of Jerusalem was recognized as the tomb of Mary, the earliest Christians maintained that "no one was there," theologian and EWTN senior contributor Matthew Bunson told Catholic News Agency.

According to St. John of Damascus, the Roman emperor Marcian requested the body of Mary, Mother of God at the Council of Chalcedon, in 451.

St. Juvenal, Bishop of Jerusalem, told the emperor "that Mary died in the presence of all the Apostles, but that her tomb, when opened upon the request of St. Thomas, was found empty; wherefrom the Apostles concluded that the body was taken up to heaven," the saint recorded.

In 1950, Pope Pius XII made an infallible, statement officially defining the dogma of the Assumption.
