Divine Mercy Reflections from St. Faustina's Dairy

I was meditating on the sin of the Angels and their immediate punishment, I asked Jesus why the Angels had been punished as soon as they had sinned.

I heard a voice: Because of their profound knowledge of God. No person on earth, even though a great saint, has such knowledge of God as an Angel has.

Nevertheless, to me who am so miserable, You have shown Your mercy, O God, and this, time and time again. You carry me in the bosom of Your mercy and forgive me every time that I ask Your forgiveness with a contrite heart. (Diary, 1332)

Holy Hours in October Mondays at St. Ann, 6-8 pm

Thursdays at St. Mary, after Mass until 8 pm

Starting in October we will be having Holy Hours with Exposition to pray for a return to peace and civility in our country and for a result of the elections that are in best interest of the true common good and aligned with the Will of God.

History of the Rosary

The rosary probably began as a practice by the laity to imitate the monastic Divine Office during the course of which the monks daily prayed the 150 Psalms. The laity, many of whom could not read, substituted 50 or 150, Ave Marias (Hail Marys) for the Psalms. Sometimes a cord with knots on it was used to keep an accurate account of the Aves.

The first clear historical reference to the rosary is from the life of St. Dominic who died in 1221. He preached a form of the rosary in France at the time that the Albigensian heresy was devastating the Faith there. Tradition has it that the Blessed Mother herself asked for the practice as an antidote for heresy and sin.

PRS NEWS

We are continuing to provide materials for our families of our PSR Students.

They are available in the rear of the church on Sunday mornings following Mass at St. Ann's.

As we consider the Diocesan Recommendations already given and await updates PSR will continue to be provided on a remote basis until at least November 8th. Hopefully the activities provided will allow for family interactions while completing them.

As the election approaches, many of the faithful are praying a Rosary Novena for the future of our country, that it will be aligned with the will of God.

You can participate by saying a rosary daily until the election.

Pray for your president!

What is the difference between a church, a chapel, a cathedral and a basilica?

A church is any place of worship that has a permanent congregation and is run by a pastor or priest.

Unlike a church, a chapel is a place of worship that has no pastor or priest and no permanent congregation; it's all about the physical space. In the classic sense, it's usually smaller than a church—sometimes just a room—and can be within a church itself or in a secular place like a hospital or airport.

A cathedral is a church that's run by a bishop; it's the principal church within a diocese. It's named for the cathedra, the special chair in which a bishop sits. And contrary to what might seem like the obvious differentiator, the buildings themselves have no physical requirements; it's all about the bishop.

As long as it's where the bishop sits, it's a cathedral.

As for basilicas, there are two types: basilicas major and basilicas minor. The basilicas major are the four personal churches of the pope and are in and around Rome. Basilicas minor can be found around the world and are rewarded that status by the pope, usually because of some sort of historical, spiritual, or architectural significance. The term "basilica" is an additional label to whatever the structure already is; any cathedral or church can also be a basilica.

The Knights of Columbus are collecting for the veterans at the VA Hospital.

Needed: soap, toothbrushes, toothpaste, combs, shampoo, shaving cream, disposable razors, socks, puzzles, puzzle books, Western books, pencils, pens, envelopes, t-shirts, sweatshirts and sweatpants.

Questions: Russ Woodrow (St. Mary) & Trenton McCarty (St. Ann)

Donations may be put in the back of the churches.

All donations will be appreciated
