Divine Mercy Reflections from St. Faustina's Dairy

As I took the pen in hand, I addressed a short prayer to the Holy Spirit and said, Jesus, bless this pen so that everything You order me to write may be for the glory of God." Then I heard a voice:

Yes, I bless it, because this writing bears the seal of obedience to your superior and confessor, and by that very fact I am already given glory, and many souls will be drawing profit from it. My daughter, I demand that you devote all your free moments to writing about My goodness and mercy. It is your office and your assignment throughout your life to continue to make known to souls the great mercy I have for them and to exhort them to trust in My bottomless mercy (Diary, 1567).

Laundry Soap Ministry

Holy Hours in October
Mondays at St. Ann, 6-8 pm
Thursdays at St. Mary, after Mass until 8 pm

During October we will be having Holy Hours with Exposition to pray for a return to peace and civility in our country and for a result of the elections that are in best interest of the true common good and aligned with the Will of God.

The Holy Rosary

The rosary is one of the most cherished prayers of our Catholic Church. Over the centuries the saints and popes have highly recommended the rosary, saying it's the greatest prayer after the Mass and Liturgy of the Hours.

During its recitation, the individual meditates on the saving mysteries of our Lord's life and the faithful witness of our Blessed Mother.

The rosary probably began as a practice by the laity to imitate the Divine Office (Liturgy of the Hours), in which the monks daily prayed the 150 Psalms.

Many people couldn't read so they substituted 50 or even 150 Hail Marys for the Psalms. Sometimes a cord with knots on it was used to keep an accurate count of the Aves.
