Divine Mercy Reflections from St. Faustina's Dairy

Jesus said:

My daughter, I am always with you.
I have given you the opportunity to practice deeds of mercy which you will perform according to obedience.

You will give Me much pleasure if,
each evening, you will speak to Me
especially about this task.

(Diary, 1267)

Jesus said: I know, My daughter,
that you understand it and that you
do everything within your power.

But write this for the many souls
who are often worried because they do not have the material means with which to carry out an act of mercy.

Yet spiritual mercy, which requires
neither permissions nor storehouses,
is much more meritorious and is
within the grasp of every soul.

If a soul does not exercise mercy
somehow or other, it will not obtain
My mercy on the day of judgment.

(Diary, 1317)

The Catechism teaches us that deeds of mercy are
the Spiritual Works of Mercy and
the Corporal Works of Mercy.

It states "The works of mercy are charitable actions by which we come to the aid of our neighbor in his spiritual and bodily necessities. Instructing, advising, consoling, comforting are spiritual works of mercy, as are forgiving and bearing wrongs patiently. The corporal works of mercy consist especially in feeding
the hungry, sheltering the homeless,
clothing the naked, visiting the sick
and imprisoned, and burying the dead."

Diocese to begin 40 Days of Adoration on Ash Wednesday

Bishop Robert Brennan calls upon the Diocese of Columbus to celebrate Jesus Christ's Real Presence in Eucharist in a special way this Lent.

Starting on Ash Wednesday, February 17, the diocese will launch 40 Days of Adoration. Every day for 40 days, a different parish throughout the diocese will host Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament for Adoration throughout the day.

Some of the hosting parishes will expose the Eucharist for 24 hours or longer. Others will expose the Blessed Sacrament after their morning Mass and conclude with Benediction in the evening.

Parishioners and families of host parishes and neighboring parishes are encouraged to volunteer for shifts to pray before the Blessed Sacrament on the parish's designated day. Even though local parishes are sponsoring each day of Adoration, the entire Diocese of Columbus is asked to participate.

An ancient custom from the church of Rome is to visit a different "stational church" each day of Lent. In the same manner, the people of the church of Columbus are invited to visit and spend time with Jesus in the Eucharist at as many different host parishes on their day of Adoration. The schedule of host parishes is available at columbuscatholic.org/40days.

The closest parishes to us are in Newark. They are:

March 17 at Blessed Sacrament,
394 E. Main St., Newark, 8 am - 10 pm

March 18 at St. Francis de Sales,
40 Granville St., Newark,
7 pm Wednesday - 7 pm Thursday

How much does one get paid for being pope? Nothing.

In 2001, the Vatican confirmed that the pope "does not and has never received a salary". As a Jesuit, Pope Francis had already taken a vow of poverty.

Blessed Palms

Please take your palms to either of the churches so we can burn them
February 14 for Ash Wednesday.

Do you read
The Catholic Times online at the diocesan website or receive the newspaper in the mail?

The Catholic Times needs your support. Your donations allow The Catholic Times to continue its mission of providing news and information about the diocese that you won't read anywhere else. You'll find news stories, features, sports, arts, insightful and entertaining columns, an extensive calendar of events and more.

Sign up online at columbuscatholic.org/catholictimes under the subscription payments tab.

You may also use the envelope provided in your envelope packet, or simply write your name and The Catholic Times on a plain envelope, make your check payable to the Diocese of Columbus – Catholic Times, and drop it into the collection basket.

Another option is to mail your $17 check payable to Diocese of Columbus – Catholic Times to our office at 197 E. Gay St., Columbus, OH 43215.

Did Jesus have a last name?

Use of a family/last name is a relatively new concept dating back only 400-500 years. Up to that time people lived in small towns or rural areas and generally went by first names only.

This was the case in Jesus' time. Often, a person's town name was added to clarify who was being spoken about (e.g. Jesus of Nazareth, Joseph of Arimathea). Throughout the Gospel, Jesus is referred to as "Jesus of Nazareth" (Mk 16:6), "Jesus, son of David" (Mt 9:27), "Jesus, the carpenter's son" (Mt 13:55), "Jesus, the son of Joseph" (Jn 6:42). By today's standards, any of these could be used as the equivalent of Jesus' "last name".
