

Hebrews Study Week 1 Questions

Who do you think wrote Hebrews? Why do you think that?

If you thought of Hebrews as a homily, would your understanding of it change? To you, what makes a good homily?

What rituals or traditions do we celebrate as a Church? How are these a part of our identity?

What do you consider the early Church to be like? Does it change at all knowing that the author of Hebrews seems to reprimand some of the early Christians?

What sort of challenges do you think would exist for someone who was a Jew in converting to Christianity? What about for a Gentile?

Why is it said that Hebrews was probably composed before the year 70AD?