Pastor's Message

Calming the Storm

Jesus may have rebuked the disciples for their weak faith, but he didn't abandon them to let them drown. Instead, he calmed the storm and then continued to teach them who he was and demonstrated what it was to have faith in God.

Do we have more faith in the adversities of our life than in the mercy and grace of God?

If the fear in us is stronger than our faith, we can turn to God and he'll teach us because his mercy endures forever.

Feeding on God's word will build your faith and calm the storm raging within you.

Learn to trust and surrender your life into the hands of God. As Charles de Foucauld said: "Father, I put myself in your hands. Do with me what you want, whatever it is, I thank you. I am ready for anything. I accept everything as long as your will is fulfilled in me and in all your creatures. I don't want more, Father. I entrust my soul to you, I give it to you with all my love. Because I love you and I need to give myself to you, I need to put myself in your hands, without limitation, without measure, with infinite confidence, because You are my Father".
