MY WORDS WILL NOT PASS AWAY

Mark uses apocalyptic language in today’s Gospel (13: 24-32). Apocalypse is a literary form that was used from 200 BC until 100 AD. A prime example of this writing is Daniel 7–12. It employs visions, allegories and complicated symbolism. It is often used to deal with the end times (eschatology). Written at a time of crisis, apocalyptic writing is used to console the readers by the promise of God’s ultimate triumph! It also celebrates the vindication of the faithful.

In a significant text Daniel speaks of one like the son of man. The prophet says of him, “When he reached the Ancient of Days and was presented before him, he received dominion, splendor, and kingship; all nations, peoples and tongues will serve him.” (Daniel 7: 13-14) Mark quotes the prophet, “They will see ‘the Son of Man coming in the clouds with great power and glory.” (Mark 13: 26) In an earlier situation Mark uses Old Testament language, speaking of the Son of Man coming “in his Father’s glory with the holy angels.” (8: 38) Very importantly Jesus applies the words of Daniel to himself at the time of his trial: “You will see the Son of Man seated at the right hand of the Power and coming with the clouds of heaven.” (Mark 14: 62)

The early Church had a strong expectation that the Son of Man would return soon, bringing with him salvation for the elect. At this point Mark uses apocalyptic language from the Old Testament to describe the Second Coming of Christ: “The sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will be falling from the sky, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken.” (13: 24-25) Another example of Old Testament apocalyptic language is found in the prophet Joel: “Before them the earth trembles; the heavens shake; sun and moon are darkened, and the stars withhold their brightness.” (2: 10) These texts simply mean in apocalyptic language that God will intervene in human history. Our Lord insists, “Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.” (Mark 13: 31)

A note of caution concerning the precise time of Jesus’ return is important. Christ himself tells his followers: “But of that day or hour no one knows, neither the angels nor the Son, but only the Father.” (Mark 13: 32) It is amazing, but clear that the Son does not know the time when “heaven and earth will pass away.” (Mark 13: 31) We are reminded of the mystery of the incarnation: “The Word became flesh.” (John 1: 14) Jesus the son of God is also the son of Mary! As the son of Mary, in his human nature, he does not know when the world will end and he will return for his Second Coming.

Our Lord adds a final exhortation. “What I say to you, I say to all: ‘Watch!’” (Mark 13: 37)

Thank you for sacrificing your life for all of us.
Thank you for all the wonderful blessings we have in our lives.

Thank you for keeping us safe and healthy and giving us the opportunity to live and breathe.
Thank you for this day and watching over us and for loving us.
Thank you for the gift of our faith.
Thank you for this wonderful meal that we will share together.

Thank you for giving us all that we need.
Amen.

May everyone have a blessed Thanksgiving!

The Virtue of Stewardship: Our parish school continues to participate in the Virtues in Practice program this year. Each month, the whole school focuses on the same virtue as they hope to grow closer to Jesus by imitating His life and virtues. They also learn more about the saints who exemplify these good habits. This month students and their families are learning about the virtue of stewardship. Please join them by modeling how you return to God the first fruits of your time, talent, and treasure during the month of November.
The Eleventh Annual Friends of the Poor Walk was held on Saturday, September 29th. Thanks to your help and generous support, the Walk raised over $17,000 for the St. Vincent de Paul Societies in St. Mary’s County. The money raised stays in the local St. Vincent de Paul Conferences to be used for direct and immediate aid to those in need. The St. Vincent de Paul Society helps with rent, oil, water bills, medications, electric and food. You are making a difference in the lives of many. Again, THANK YOU!

ANGEL TREE
As we prepare for Advent, the Saint Vincent de Paul Society will be sponsoring the ANGEL TREE this year. The Tree will be available with the Angels the weekend of November 24/25. The Society has obtained names of families within our community that are in need of assistance and will be providing gifts for their children. Each family will receive $75.00 in food cards at a minimum and each child in the selected families will receive two (2) gifts. There will be two separate angels for each child. The angel will provide suggestions to help you choose an appropriate gift. It is important that all gifts and food cards be returned by 11:00 am Mass on Sunday, December 9th.

REMEMBER FATHER ANDREW WHITE SCHOOL WILL BE SELLING SCRIP CARDS AFTER MASS EACH WEEKEND. We ask that before you go Christmas shopping for items and/or food cards; consider purchasing a scrip card for the store(s) you plan to use for your shopping needs. That way we help the community and our school! For more information regarding the Angel Tree, please contact Vicki Wenke 301-373-5420.

Getting Ahead in a Just Gettin’-By World is underway at the Lexington Park Library. Six investigators are working over next several weeks to create change in their lives to build roads to stability and better lives. Additional volunteers are needed to prepare a simple meal for the group to share prior to their meeting. For more information or to volunteer, please contact Karen O’Connor 703-395-5979, or karen_oconnor2001@yahoo.com. Thank you for your support!
