THE TRANSGRESSION OF JESUS

To understand the significance of the transgression of Jesus, one should study the Biblical context in Matthew, Mark, and Luke. In all three Gospels the confession of Peter starts the series of events. Peter expresses his belief that Jesus is the Messiah. Unfortunately, at that time many were expecting a military, political Messiah who would free the Jewish people from Rome.

Therefore, Jesus makes clear that he is a suffering Messiah, who will be killed (Matthew 16:21) Peter objects to that presentation and Jesus says, “Get behind me, Satan.” (v.23) Christ portrays himself as the Suffering Servant of Isaiah. (Isaiah 52:12) He then goes on to say to all his followers, “Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me.” (v.24)

After our Lord’s insisting that he will die for our salvation and that his followers must take up their crosses, he gives comfort to the three privileged apostles (Peter, James and John) by the transgression: “His face shone like the sun and his clothes became white as light.” (17:2) Moses and Elijah appear, representing the Law and prophets of the Old Testament. Christ is clearly manifested as the fulfillment of the Old Testament.

Most importantly at this event the voice of God said, “This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him.” (17:5) The first part of those words was heard at the baptism of Jesus; but here the Father adds the phrase, “Listen to him.” This addition of the Father recalls the text of Deuteronomy 18:15, where Moses says, “A prophet like me will the Lord, your God, raise up for you from among your own kinsmen. That is the one to whom you shall listen.”

Jesus refers to the transgression as a “vision.” (17:9) Apocalyptic visions give insight into the future, into heavenly realities. The transgression makes clear that Jesus is not only a prophet but also the Son of God. It prepares for these words of our Lord: “For the Son of Man will come with his angels in his Father’s glory.” (16:27)

LITTLE BLACK BOOKS: As a companion for prayer during the season of Lent the parish is once again offering The Little Black Book. These pocket-sized books lead us through a six-minute meditation each day on the Passion according to St. Mark. The Little Black Book is available in the vestibule with voluntary $1 donation to offset the cost.

Vocations Tree - Pray for Our Seminarians

It’s not too late to choose an archdiocesan seminarian and commit to praying for him each day during the remainder of Lent. Please take a moment today to stop by the “Vocations Tree” in the St. Aloysius niche, where you’ll see cards for each of the seminarians of the Archdiocese of Washington. Choose one or more cards and pray for that seminarian each day during Lent. Make it a beautiful offering to the Lord this Lent to pray for those whom He calls to give their lives in service of His Church in our archdiocese.

FASTING & ABSTINENCE for LENT

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of fasting and abstinence from meat for those age 18—59. Seafood is permitted. In addition, Fridays during Lent are days of abstinence for those age 14 and up. When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal.

(If possible, the fast on Good Friday is continued until the Easter Vigil as the “paschal fast” to honor the suffering and death of the Lord Jesus, and to prepare ourselves to share more fully in and to celebrate more readily his Resurrection.)
Dear Friends –

We hope by now you have had occasion to visit our new Sacred Heart Chapel or attend an event in our new Parish Hall. It is great to see and hear the Hall filled with such joy on Community Sunday, as you gather with friends and family over coffee and donuts!

The following is an update on the current status of the finances regarding our new addition. As you may recall, we were required to have 75% of the estimated cost of the addition on hand before construction began. The total cost of the project was $2.7 million. As the construction continued, we continued to collect funds toward the building cost and allocated these funds towards the construction invoices.

A line of credit was temporarily used until the recent approval of a low-interest loan through the Archdiocese for the remainder. That loan for the remainder of the debt is about $300,000, which we hope to pay off as soon as possible.

To that end, we designated our building collection envelopes for debt reduction, 100% of which goes toward that purpose alone. In the meantime, we would like to suggest a couple of effective ways we can make a big dent in the debt.

1) If we sell all of these pavers for the sidewalk leading into the Hall, we can cut our debt in half! You can purchase brick pavers for $250 each. Consider honoring a person, living or deceased or an event, such as an anniversary to commemorate by purchasing an inscribed brick.

2) We would like to hold some fundraising events in the Hall over the coming year. Stay tuned as these details unfold. Please consider attending as they occur and bring your family and friends.

Let’s honor our loved ones and have a little fun while we work together to pay down the debt and thank God for his overflowing goodness!
