

THE TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

May our hearts not be hardened, but may we turn from our sin. In our love for one another, we may be called to confront our brother and sister for the wrong they may be doing.

Respect for Life

That educational institutions at all levels may fairly and adequately present the pro-life issue,

We pray to the Lord....

ANNUNCIATION SCHOOL NEWS

The ACS Junior Beta Club is collecting items for babies affected by Hurricane Laura in its Betas for Babies campaign. Students and parishioners are invited to send in diapers and/ or wipes to be distributed to hurricane victims in Southwest Louisiana. This is Beta's September service project.

ACS students have begun taking orders for Father Bru's pre-made cooking specialties. This is our first school fundraiser of the year. Fr. Bru and his Cooking Crew will prepare delicious red beans and dirty rice in QUART SIZED CONTAINERS. They will be packaged and refrigerated and ready for pick-up on Saturday, October 3rd. PRICE PER QUART IS $10. These family sized containers are ideal for storing in your freezer for those nights when you don't feel like cooking! ACS appreciates your generosity in this endeavor.

Mrs. Sheila Seal from Our Lady of the Angels Hospital visited each class at ACS and performed a handwashing demonstration and information session on germ transmission. This is a part of our school wide effort to keep our students healthy and in school.

ACS will observe the Labor Day holiday on Monday, September 7. Classes will resume on Tuesday, September 8 with school Mass.

Please continue to pray for the success and longevity of Annunciation Catholic School. Tabetha Ezell, Dean of Students

Giving out of Love

Brothers and sisters: Owe nothing to anyone, except to love one another.

After Mass, the congregation was milling about in the convent courtyard. An acquaintance caught my eye from across the way. We smiled and nodded, and then before I knew it, she rushed toward me and there she was, sharing some surprising, sad news about her family. It was difficult and challenging, and of course, I said what one does, sincerely: "Whatever I can do...I'll be praying for you."

Not an isolated incident, of course, as I'm sure is the case with you too. The previous day, another acquaintance had shared a similar story about her own adult child, and as I glanced around at those who had gathered that morning, I knew that every smile and every hug was offered by a person bearing some sort of pain. We may not know what we mean when we assure another, "Whatever I can do," but rooting whatever we give in love is the only place we can start.

Loving Father, help me to respond to each person I meet today with love.

A Request from Archbishop Aymond Regarding Opportunities for the Sacrament of Reconciliation...

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,
It is our archdiocesan tradition to offer the Sacrament of Reconciliation on a weekday evening near the Feast of the Exultation of the Cross. I am pleased to inform you that many people throughout the Archdiocese of New Orleans have taken advantage of this opportunity and the priests have decided to continue this practice.

This year, confessions will be available on Wednesday, September 9th at Annunciation Catholic Church from 5:00 PM – 6:00 PM. Please consider taking advantage of this opportunity to invite the healing Christ into your heart with his promise of mercy.

Pope Francis reminds us, "God is a Father and he is always waiting for us! It is so wonderful to feel the merciful embrace of the Father in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. The confessional is a place of mercy!"

In talking about our weakness and sin, he says, "Jesus does not want to beat us and condemn us. He gave his life for us... He is always looking for a way to get to the heart... there is forgiveness."

Please consider having your family come to church together for Confession on Wednesday, September 9th.

Wishing you God's blessings, I am
Sincerely in Christ,

+Gregory M. Aymond
Archbishop of New Orleans
