MARCH 28 2021
PALM SUNDAY

Readings: Isaiah 50:4–7 Psalm 22:8–9, 17–20, 23–24
Philippians 2:6–11, Mark 14:1–15:47

Crowned with thorns, our Lord is lifted up on the Cross, where He dies as “King of the Jews.” Notice how many times He is called “king” in today’s Gospel—mostly in scorn and mockery.

As we hear the long accounts of His Passion, at every turn we must remind ourselves—He suffered this cruel and unusual violence for us.

He is the Suffering Servant foretold by Isaiah in today’s First Reading. He reenacts the agony described in today’s Psalm, and even dies with the first words of that Psalm on His lips (see Psalm 22:1).

Listen carefully for the echoes of this Psalm throughout today’s Gospel—as Jesus is beaten, His hands and feet are pierced; as His enemies gamble for His clothes, wagging their heads, mocking His faith in God’s love, His faith that God will deliver Him.

Are we that much different from our Lord’s tormenters? Often, don’t we deny that He is King, refusing to obey His only commands that we love Him and one another? Don’t we render Him mock tribute, pay Him lip service with our half-hearted devotions?

In the dark noon of Calvary, the veil in Jerusalem’s temple was torn. It was a sign that by His death Jesus destroyed forever the barrier separating us from the presence of God. He was God and yet humbled Himself to come among us, we’re reminded in today’s Epistle. And despite our repeated failures, our frailty, Jesus still humbles Himself to come to us, offering us His body and blood in the Eucharist. His enemies never understood: His kingship isn’t of this world (see John 18:36). He wants to write His law, His rule of life on our hearts and minds.

As we enter Holy Week, let us once more resolve to give Him dominion in our lives. Let us take up the cross He gives to us—and confess with all our hearts, minds, and strength that truly this is the Son of God.

We are asking those who intend to attend Easter Triduum and Easter Sunday Mass in person to reserve a spot for your party (similar to what we did for Christmas). Sign up will be available on line (preferred) at <https://aksaintandrews.org/easter-triduum-and-mass> or by using sign up forms available in the narthex. We will accept reservation until Sunday. Once the Service is full you will be given your second choice,

Triduum Schedule:

Holy Thursday—7pm (live streamed)

Full Good Friday —7pm (live streamed)

Holy Saturday Easter Vigil—8 pm

Easter Sunday Schedule:

Full Mass —9:30 am (live streamed with communion available until 11:15 am)

Mass—noon

We will also have Stations of the Cross on Good Friday at 3pm, but registration for this event is not required.

We understand the wish for live streaming of services, but we are constrained by our camera placement and are unable to stream certain services.

WHAT CHANGES WILL WE HAVE IN THE PALM SUNDAY/HOLY WEEK SERVICES—

- On Palm Sunday palms will be given out after Mass.
- On Holy Thursday we will not be having the washing of feet.
- On Good Friday we will have veneration of the Cross by the congregation, not individually. We won't be processing individually to the cross this year.
- On Holy Saturday at the Easter Vigil we won't be passing out the individual candles.

We also ask that the congregation not sing the responses or hymns.. Even though they may be familiar, please respond silently in your hearts and head.
