November 1, 2020 Solemnity of All Saints

Yes, God has been and remains in charge and in Him we trust!

My dear Beloved friends and families:

Welcome] back! Again I truly hope that you had a blessed and productive week, and I hope that you did take the advantage of voting early. However, if you were unable to do so, I urge you to make your voice known through your vote on Tuesday November 3. To those of you who already voted, again congratulations! How are you my beloved parishioners and friends? To those of you at home, please know that you are greatly missed and as a faith community, we continue to walk by faith not by sight. Therefore, we know that one day and hopefully soon, our family will be fully and completely united. As we have entered into this new month, through the intercessions of All Saints, may you have a very successful and safe month! Indeed, during those difficult and challenging times, we continue to remain united through thoughts and prayers with the rest of the Church family at home. I would like to take this time to continue to extend heartfelt thanks and gratitude for your unwavering and continued financial support. .Again, I love you all dearly, and please remain safe.

Again and it is worth repeating that it is unbelievable because even though, you are away from the parish, your generosity and good will continue to remain strong and unwavering. Yes, the parish continues to remain opened and it is because of you. As the pastor of the parish, I will forever remain grateful. Moreover, your responses to my letter on behalf of this year Fund Fest are remarkable and surprising. As of this weekend, we have $10,300.00 in the bank. WOW! WOW! Yes, God is good all the time. Again, let us continue to remind ourselves that our Lord and Savior is continuing to walk along with us and He will never abandon us. Indeed, it continues to remain a very challenging time and at times a very frightening one. However, we continue to remain a Church family that has faith and a family that trusts in a God who is good all the time. As a result, in the midst of dark times, we continue to walk by faith and hope believing that tomorrow will be a better day. My friends and families, I urge you to say a special prayer for the upcoming national elections so that through the intercession of our Lady of Perpetual Help we may have peaceful, fair, and successful elections.

This weekend, the Church celebrates the solemnity of the Saints. Yes, the call to holiness has been extended to all of us, and on that journey, we continue to work diligently to respond to that call. We call upon those who already made that journey to intercede for all of us so that one day we might be able to join them. In this weekend's Gospel, we meet Jesus on the mountain where He addressed the crowds with the Sermon on the mountain commonly know as the beatitudes. "Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you because of me; be glad and rejoice for your reward will be great in heaven" Every year, the Church gives us the opportunity to revisit the beatitudes as we continue to move toward our goal, which is the search for holiness. Let us call upon the Saints that through their intercessions that one day like themselves, we might be able to see God as He is for St. John in his first letter chapter 3 verse 2 says the following: "Beloved, we are now God's children and what we are to be has not yet been revealed but when it is revealed, we shall see God as He is".

My beloved friends and families, as we celebrate the solemnity of All Saints, let us ask Jesus to continue to guide and lead us our pilgrim way as we continue to work toward our responses to that universal call to holiness and let us turn to St. David, our patron that He may intercede for us. As we continue to work to achieve the goal, let us remain focus toward that goal even in the midst of those challenging and difficult times. Again, I pray that together as a Church family we continue to work in making the effort to be effective and successful Disciples of Christ. "Who are those wearing white robes, and where did they come from? I said to Him: "My Lord, you are the One who knows". Then He said to me: "These are the ones who have survived the time of great distress; they have washed their robes and made them white in the Blood of the Lamb". Revelation 7: 9-14. Yes, my friends, this is the place at which we aim to be. Let us keep moving and Jesus is walking along with us. Don't you think so? I know you do!

Wishing you all a very blessed, safe, and productive week, and with deep love and admiration, I remain yours truly
