The worshipping community of St. David Catholic Church, nourished by the Holy Eucharist, guided by the Holy Spirit, empowered by the word of God, and inspired by our patron saints, St. Joseph, St. David of Wales and St. Maurice are committed to a deepening of our relationship with God and the universal church. We welcome and invite all to use their time and talent for the good of all God's people. A message from the Pastor

Dear beloved church families,

I welcome you back, and I truly hope that you had a successful and productive week. Indeed, you were in my thoughts and prayers throughout the week. My hope is that you and your loved ones are already fully vaccinated. Yes, our faith has been put through the test throughout those difficult and challenging times.

Last week, the church sent us home with the image that Jesus was and is the Good shepherd who lay down His life for His sheep, and He has the power to take it up again. In this weekend's gospels, Jesus said to His disciples: "I am the vine, and my Father is the vine grower." Moreover, the disciples were reminded that it was important for them to remain in Jesus as He remained in them because without Him, they could do nothing. Indeed, anyone who remains in Him will bear good fruits. On the contrary, anyone who does not remain in Him will be thrown out.

Dearest friends and families, throughout this pandemic we have learned that it is important to remain in Jesus and that our faith in Him will get us through those difficult and challenging times. Today and more than ever, we realize that without Jesus, we can do nothing and that He has been with us during those tested times. Yes, He is the vine and we are the branches, and to remain in Him means that He continues to walk along with us. Let us continue to invite Jesus to guide us and to remind us that He will never abandon us. Moreover, when we seem to be lost, let us invite Him to order our every step.

In the name of Jesus, the vine and in the name of the Father, the vine grower, I wish you a very successful and productive week. May God's blessings be with you and your loved ones. Again, I urge you to remain careful, prudent and safe throughout the pandemic. Please be assured of my fervent prayers throughout the upcoming week. Have a blessed week in the name of the Holy Trinity: The Father, The Son and The Holy Spirit.

I remain yours truly and always,

Fr. Oswald Pierre Pierre-Jules, Jr, S.S.J. Your Pastor.
