What does membership require? The conditions of admission into the Society and of participation in its prayers and benefits are:

- (1) To have one's name inscribed in the Register of the Society and to receive a certificate of admission signed by the Director;
- (2) To say every morning and evening, and in time of temptation or danger, the invocation "Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us!"
- (3) On each Saturday members shall pray the prayer to Our Lady of Prompt Succor, and, when possible, attend the novena Mass at the National Shrine. Or, in attending a Mass on a Saturday when and where you can, and by saying the prayer to Our Lady of Prompt Succor, you will make the novena present where you are;

How do I join? To join, send a completed application form (below) to: Shrine Director, National Votive Shrine of Our Lady of Prompt Succor / 2734 Nashville Avenue / New Orleans, Louisiana 70115. The Director will have the sacristan set a date for your inscription (always on a feast of Our Lady), inscribe you in the Register of the Archconfraternity, and send you the certificate in time for you to participate in a Mass on that day (if you possibly can). If you participate in a Mass on that day, and say the required prayers to receive an indulgence, you will receive a plenary indulgence.
