Feast of Corpus Christi

Adult Religious Education Classes

There will be Wednesday classes starting May 2nd at OLPH church basement and will cover a variety of topics to increase our knowledge of the Catholic faith.

Classes will be held at 7:00pm and will go through the summer. Childcare will be available on these nights as well! For any questions please contact jacob.unterseher@gmail.com or Lance_keller@hotmail.com. This is open to both parishes as well as others interested.

From the Time and Talent of SJ the return of the Parish Picnic was one popular item checked. We will meet on Monday, June 11 at 7 PM in the church basement to set a date and make plans. Come and be part of the planning fun. Marilyn and Rita

Since the Apostolic Church, Christians have been celebrating the Eucharist, the meal in which Christians receive the body and blood of Christ. Jesus instituted this holy meal on Holy Thursday. Even though Christians highly esteem every sacrament, the Eucharist has traditionally held a special place among them. To illustrate this, Ignatius of Antioch (105 AD) referred to the Eucharist as the "medicine of immortality" (Ephesians 20:2). St. Ephrem the Syrian (373 AD) taught that even crumbs from the Eucharistic host could sanctify thousands and thousands (Homilies 4,4). In some ways every Sunday is a feast of the Eucharist, because by participating in the Mass, and in receiving Communion, we are honoring and celebrating the Eucharist. Nonetheless, a desire to specifically celebrate the Eucharist developed. The feast of Corpus Christi owes a rather large debt to St. Juliana, a nun of Liege, Belgium, who was led to start a celebration of the Mass around AD 1230. At an early age, she developed a strong devotion to the Blessed Sacrament, and she longed for a feast in honor of the Eucharist. In AD 1264 a bull of Pope Urban IV commanded universal the observance of the feast. Nonetheless, Urban's death impeded the spread of the feast. However, by the 14th century, the feast became universally celebrated in the West. St. Thomas Aquinas is given credit for many of the customs and hymns associated with Corpus Christi. The Feast of Corpus Christi is celebrated throughout the Catholic Church. Although the feast is not officially observed in most Protestant churches, some Anglican churches, especially Anglo-Catholics, observe the feast.

St. Anne's invites you to our

Annual Pie & Cake Ice Cream Social

The OLPH Mass Ministry schedule for July-September 2018 is ready for pick-up in the brochure display in the church entrance. If you have a conflict with your scheduled time, please call someone to fill in for you using the list and phone numbers available in the display. Thank you for your stewardship to our parish!

On-line Offertory Slips: On-line Offertory Donation Slips are available in the back of the church at SJ, next to the Bulletins, for parishioners who give on-line and would like to be able to place something in the collection baskets. There are a two good reasons to use these slips. First, children can see that our members support the parish financially, especially if they are the ones taking up the collection. Secondly, a symbol of your gift is physically placed at the foot of the altar during Mass and offered during the Eucharist. These slips are laminated and are to be reused, so do not write on them.
