LEARN : If Roe is overturned, the democratic process—not the courts—will determine abortion policy.

Before Roe, all states permitted abortion if necessary to save the mother's life, and some permitted abortion in additional circumstances.¹ But Roe deemed any prohibition on abortion as unconstitutional.

If Roe is overturned, policy decisions about abortion will be made by the citizens of each state through the democratic process, rather than by courts. Some states will place limits on abortion, in others there will likely be few limits.²

Not until Roe v. Wade is reversed will the people again be able to govern themselves on the important public policy issue of abortion.

The Antidote to Envy

One of the most disturbing sentiments we can experience is envy. Envy is a self-centered reaction to other people's successes, a reaction that fills us with anger and spite and makes us resent them. Envy doesn't just fill our own souls with anguish; it also leads to sins like destructive criticism, calumny, tale-bearing, and even violence. And it comes from thinking that if someone else succeeds in some visible way, then their victory is somehow my loss. If we conceive of success in an earthly way, there is a certain logic in this thinking. If Joe gets the promotion, then Frank can't get it. If Martha wins the gold medal, then Nancy can't. When it comes to earthly achievements, success is, at least in part, exclusive. But when we measure success truly, the way Christ does, in terms of fulfilling our unique mission of loving and serving God as only we can, then envy is no longer logical.

The heart of our mission in the Church consists of deepening every day, through prayer and virtuous action, our friendship with Christ. But since every friendship is personal and unique, no one can "beat us" at it. No one else can know, love, and serve God in the exact same way that you can, because you are absolutely unique - that's how God made you. In heaven, please God, each one of us will have a totally unique glory, because our friendship with Christ is totally unique.

Adopting true, Christ-like success as our personal standard of success has many other benefits as well, but its being an antidote to envy is high on the list.

At every Mass offered Jesus will renew his commitment to us, let's renew our commitment to him, and to his style of success.
