28 OCTOBER 2018

30th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Jeremiah 31:7-9—Hebrews 5:1-6—Mark 10:46-52

The invitation for us this Sunday is to humbly reflect on the ways we might be spiritually blind by asking ourselves what habits, attitudes, and ideologies hold us back from becoming the disciples that Jesus is calling us to be.

Pope Benedict XVI reflected: "Bartimaeus represents one who has lost the light and knows it, but has not lost hope: he knows how to seize the opportunity to encounter Jesus and he entrusts himself to him for healing. Indeed, when he hears that the Master is passing along the road, he cries out: "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!", and he repeats it even louder. And when Jesus calls him and asks what he wants from him, he replies: "Master, let me receive my sight!" Bartimaeus represents one aware of his pain and crying out to the Lord, confident of being healed. In the encounter with Christ, lived with faith, Bartimaeus regains the light he had lost, and with it the fullness of his dignity: he gets back onto his feet and resumes the journey, which from that moment has a guide, Jesus, and a path, the same that Jesus is traveling. The evangelist tells us nothing more about Bartimaeus, but in him he shows us what discipleship is: following Jesus 'along the way,' in the light of faith."

Priest Appreciation Sunday, October 28, 2018

With Sincere Thanks for Your Priestly Ministry

Fr. John, we appreciate your ministry to our parishes and offer the following prayer for you and all priests.

Gracious and loving God, we thank you for the gift of our priests.

Through them, we experience your presence in the sacraments.

Help our priests to be strong in their vocation. Set their souls on fire with love for your people. Grant them the wisdom, understanding, and strength they need to follow in the footsteps of Jesus. Inspire them with the vision of your Kingdom. Give them the words they need to spread the Gospel. Allow them to experience joy in their ministry. Help them to become instruments of your divine grace.

We ask this through Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns as our Eternal Priest.

Amen.

Remember to thank our pastor for his service to our parishes. He brings us the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ at each and every Mass!

There will be coffee and donuts after Mass in OLPH in honor of Priest Appreciation Sunday.

The Priesthood Is a Gift from God for the Church

The priesthood is one of the seven sacraments - the precious channels by which God pours his grace into this needy world. Even though not all Catholics are called to the active priesthood, all Catholics are called to understand, appreciate, and benefit from this sacrament - it's a sacrament given by God for the whole spiritual family of the Church. Here is what St Pope John Paul II said about the dignity of the priesthood: "The world looks to the priest, because it looks to Jesus! No one can see Christ; but everyone sees the priest, and through him they wish to catch a glimpse of the Lord! Immense is the grandeur of the Lord! Immense is the grandeur and dignity of the priest!"

The more we appreciate this gift to the Church, and understand it, the more fully we will be able to benefit from it - both us priests, and also the laity. And today's Second Reading points out three aspects of the priesthood that can help us grow in our appreciation and understanding of the priesthood.
 (1) Is a call from God (2) Is a Servant (3) The priest is a normal Human Being.
