Laetare Sunday

The fourth Sunday of Lent is called Laetare Sunday, from the first words of the Introit at Mass, "Laetare Jerusalem" ('Rejoice, O Jerusalem').

Like Gaudete Sunday midway through Advent, Laetare reminds us of the event we look forward to at the end of the penitential season and the joy in anticipation of the Resurrection. The vestments for this day will be rose, as they are on Gaudete Sunday in Advent.

Envelopes for Easter flower memorials can be found in the display rack in the church entrance and by the holy water fountains in the church. Please help make our church beautiful to celebrate Easter and the resurrection of our Lord!

Midway through our Lenten journey towards Christ's Passion and Resurrection, the Church invites us to rejoice. Christian joy is a unique joy. It doesn't go away, like earthly joys, which wear out when whatever causes them wears out, like new toys. When we get them we are filled with joy, but then we get tired of them, or they wear out. Friendship with Christ never wears out. God's goodness, creativity, and love are infinite. So if we really know him, if we are actively living that friendship, we can never get tired of him, our joy can never wear out. This explains why Christians can sing hymns inside concentration camps, because not even prisons can't take away Christ's love.

LAETARE SUNDAY
HALF-WAY THROUGH LENT

The Youth and Young Adult Ministry Department of the Diocese of Fargo is in need of Young Adults, strong in their faith, that could help with the summer retreats that will be happening from July 17-July 24, 2019. We have a retreat for young ladies, ages 13-17, from 7:00pm, Wednesday, July 17 until noon, Saturday, July 20. Our next retreat is for young men, ages 13-17, from 7:00pm, Sunday, July 21 until noon, Wednesday, July 24. You will be asked to prepare one or two talks to be given to the youth attendees, you will also be doing crafts with the young ladies and for both the ladies and the young men you will play outdoor games such as volley ball, kick ball, ultimate Frisbee. You will also be supervising during the quiet time, which shouldn't take up your time too much so you can also sleep. There will be a couple of meetings in April, May and June to help each counselor prepare their talks. A stipend of $500 will be given to each young adult that comes to the meetings and helps with the retreat. If you are interested, please contact Kathy at 701-356-7902 or email her at Kathy.loney@fargodiocese.org

The Community Veteran's Park in Reynolds is holding a free will donation brunch and silent auction at the KC Hall in Reynolds on Sunday April 14th from 9:30a-1p.
