Cardinal Basil Hume of London once told the following story about a Nazi concentration camp during World War Two.

The line leading up to the gas chambers was long. The faces of the people waiting to enter reflected a welter of emotions.

Some were in shock.

Some were in denial about what was actually happening.

Some were filled with anger; some with fear.

And some were crying.

A little gypsy girl was standing in that line, holding a doll in her hand. She was crying.

One of the guards saw her, and some forgotten corner of his heart came to life. But what could he do? He couldn't save her, since he was only one man against a thousand armed with machine guns. He did the only thing he could do. He joined her in the line, and, holding her hand, walked with her into the gas chamber to die together.

This is what Christ did for us on the Cross. He laid down his life for us. His death and resurrection destroyed the power of death. That's the way Jesus loves us. And that's the way we're called to love each other. Love is a Christian's name tag.

3 things you may not have known about purgatory

- 1 It isn't merely a punishment. Rather, it's a gift given by God to make us "perfect images of Christ."
- 2 The process can be long and painful, so we need to pray for our loved ones — always.
- 3 Though they can't pray for themselves, the holy souls in purgatory, as members of the body of Christ, can pray for us.

OUR PRAYER FOR THE HOLY SOULS
"Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace."
