Who Won Last Year's Super Bowl?

Material things are all passing, even the most beautiful and glorious of them. This is why Jesus was born poor - to tell us not to build our happiness around things that will lose their luster. Just think about last year's Super Bowl. It was such a big deal last year, but now? Many of you don't even remember who won last year's Super Bowl! And if you remember last year's victor, what about the year before, what about five years ago, ten years ago?

Material things - wealth, achievements, glory, fame, pleasure - they have their place in life, but they are not the purpose of life. Here's how the YOUCAT puts it: God has placed in our hearts such an infinite desire for happiness that nothing can satisfy it but God himself. All earthly fulfillment gives us only a foretaste of eternal happiness. Above and beyond that, we should be drawn to God. (#281)

loving God and neighbor: The great danger in today's world, pervaded as it is by consumerism, is the desolation and anguish born of a complacent yet covetous heart, the feverish pursuit of frivolous pleasures, and a blunted conscience. Whenever our interior life becomes caught up in its own interests and concerns, there is no longer room for others, no place for the poor. God's voice is no longer heard, the quiet joy of his love is no longer felt, and the desire to do good fades. This is a very real danger for believers too. Many fall prey to it, and end up resentful, angry and listless. That is no way to live a dignified and fulfilled life; it is not God's will for us, nor is it the life in the Spirit which has its source in the heart of the risen Christ. (Evangelii Gaudium, #2)

Super Bowls are fun, and exciting, and enjoyable - but let's not live for them, or for the weekend, or for anything else that's merely material. Let's live for God - that's the sure road to happiness, as Jesus wanted to teach us by being born into poverty.
