On behalf of the diocesan Office of Marriage and Family Life and the 21 couples who attended the Retrouvaille weekend last weekend, I would like to extend our deep thanks to you for helping to get the word out about this program. Some of those who attended described what happened for them as "a miracle". Another wife stated that they had been through years and years and year and years of marriage therapy which left her with one foot out the door, and yet on the weekend they actually found help for their marriage. Another woman shared that she and her husband have been separated for many years, and through those years, she has been praying and praying for something to happen and on the weekend something happened. It was truly a beautiful, painful, and powerful weekend and one that generated hope for many couples, sometimes for the first time in a long time. So once again, please know of our gratitude to you and all who helped to spread the word. It was particularly touching know that this past Sunday was the World Day of Marriage.
