Fences have Reasons—Charley and Matt lived in a nice neighborhood where the people were friendly - except for one man who lived alone at the end of the street in a big house with a gigantic swimming pool. His pool had a huge diving board - so high they could see it over the big fence that surrounded his property. Charley and Matt wished they could dive off that diving board, but no one was ever allowed on the property. One day the old man left for a trip out of town. Late that night, they snuck out of their bedrooms to meet at the old man's house. Although it was a moonless night, they didn't use flashlights to avoid being seen.

They climbed over the fence into the yard. Even in the pitch dark they could make out the form of a second fence right next to the pool - which they immediately climbed over. Inside the pool area they couldn't see a thing. Charley was feeling his way along, looking for a place to put his towel, when Matt bumped into the diving board. He started climbing up the ladder. "Last one in is a rotten egg!" he called to Charley, laughing. "Be quiet!" Charley said as he felt his way to the edge of the pool to check the water temperature. He sat down on the edge when he heard Matt spring off the board. And just about the time Charley made his discovery, he heard a thud and a blood-curdling scream. What Charley discovered was that there was no water in the pool. Matt hit the bottom of the pool feet first, broke his back, and was paralyzed for the rest of his life.

Whatever God asks of us, he asks it because he loves us. The Ten Commandments, the teachings of the Church, the voice of conscience - these are not random rules; they are God's fences, ways that God guides us towards his blessings, just as he guided Abraham.

Department of Youth and Young Adult Ministry for the Diocese of Fargo (Kathy Loney) is looking for young adults, male and female, to help plan and present a gender specific retreat this summer. The retreat is for students ages 13-17. The theme has not been decided yet and young adults would be helping to decide and then design the retreat with talks to fit the theme. You would also choose and participate in indoor and outdoor games for this age. The paid position includes several meetings and the actual retreat and evaluation. For more information or to say 'yes' to this challenge, please contact Kathy Loney at 701-356-7902 or email her at Kathy.loney@fargodiocese.org for more information no later than Friday, March 20.

The ladies of OLPH Christian Women's Organization (CWO) will have a meeting on Monday, March 9th at 7:00 p.m.
