AUGUST MASS SCHEDULE:

5P SAT: SJ

8:30A SUN: SJ

10:30A SUN: OLPH

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is held from 5p to 9p at OLPH this Tuesday.

Isaiah 55:1-3; psalms 145:8-9, 15-16, 17-18;
Romans 8:35, 37-39; Matthew 14:13-21

Concern has been voiced that the number of candidates for Confirmation and First Communion were too large for the Church of St Jude. To alleviate this concern, I have decided to split the group into two and have Our Lady of Perpetual Help candidates celebrate these sacraments at 3 pm on August 15th. Since the schedule for the vigil Mass for the month of August is scheduled at St Jude's, the candidates for St Jude will celebrate these sacraments at 5 pm at St. Jude's

The reason for this changed is solely based on distancing concerns and having enough pews needed for each family.

Precautions are to be observed with distancing and the use of face masks as well as hand sanitizing.

Receiving from the Chalice will not be offered (Precious Blood of Our Lord). The Eucharist will be communicated through the Body of Our Lord in the bread.

The weekly Mass schedule will commence this week. Daily Mass will be at 9am Tuesday through Friday.

After 14 long days of quarantine, I have to admit it was hard on the soul and spirit. Please remember the many people in the community going through the same health measure.

As pastor of two vibrant parishes, I am calling everyone to a weekly Holy Hour for the intention of the farmers, that they may have a safe and fruitful harvest in the coming months, and the second intention for the sick and those suffering from the effects of the pandemic. A Holy Hour can be your choice anytime and with the churches open 24/7, you have a lot of options. Every Tuesday evening Adoration takes place and that is a wonderful opportunity for a Holy Hour

August is dedicated to Immaculate Heart of Mary

"Jesus said to them, 'There is no need for them to go away; give them some food yourselves'." - MATTHEW 14:16

This is what Jesus said right before he fed the five thousand men. How often do we really place our trust in Jesus when the situation looks grim? With Jesus, no gift is too small or insignificant when offered with love. But, we have to do our part. We should trust that Jesus will provide all that we need. We need to believe that Jesus has a better plan in store for us.

The Miracles of Christ
Christ's miracles are signs of the Kingdom of God, the way things will be when Christ reigns in our hearts and when he fully reigns in the world.

In the Gospel passage we just heard, Jesus cured the sick the crowds had brought him and then fed them all through the miracle of the loaves and fish. Jesus' preaching is accompanied by "mighty works and wonders and signs" which "manifest that the kingdom is present in him and attest that he was the promised Messiah" (CCC 547). They "strengthen faith . . . [and] bear witness that he is the Son of God" (CCC 548).

In other words, Christ's miracles witness the truth of his words. Some people have thought to ask, why did not Christ perform a universal miracle and heal and feed and give eternal life to everyone then living and everyone who would ever live? Some people assert that if Christ was all-wise, all-good, and all-powerful he would have to do just that.

This is the answer the Catechism gives. "By freeing some individuals from the earthly evils of hunger, injustice, illness, and death, Jesus performed messianic signs. Nevertheless he did not come to abolish all evils here below, but to free men from the gravest slavery, sin, which thwarts them in their vocation as God's sons and causes all forms of human bondage. (CCC 549)

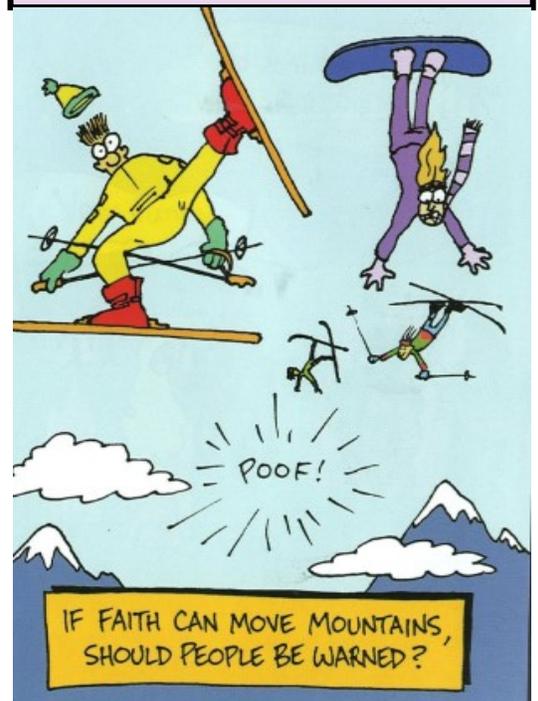

It was, then, not Christ's intention to end every evil. It was not even Christ's intention to abolish sin, but to free men from its slavery. Does sin really thwart one's vocation as a child of God? Yes. It is the only thing that can separate us from the love of Christ.

Is sin really the cause of every form of human bondage? Yes.
